Southern Cross University

From the SelectedWorks of Anne Schillmoller

January 2010

LAW 00117 Administrative Law 3rd edition

Contact Author

Start Your Own SelectedWorks

Notify Me of New Work

Available at: http://works.bepress.com/anne_schillmoller/14

Administrative Law

Contents

Topic 1

The framework of Australian administrative law

Overview..... 5
Objectives..... 5
Introduction: What is administrative law?..... 5
Accountability in an administrative state..... 6
The historical foundations of administrative law..... 8
Judicial review..... 9
Merits review..... 10
Accountability across the public/private divide..... 12
Constitutional considerations..... 13
Delegation and the separation of powers doctrine..... 16
Conferral of functions upon federal administrative tribunals and Ch III courts..... 18
Conferral of functions upon federal executive agencies..... 19
Appointment of ch III judges to tribunals and to discharge executive functions..... 20
Federal jurisdiction..... 21
Topic summary..... 22

Topic 2

Part 1: Rule-making and control of subordinate legislation
Part 2: Executive policies, directions and representations

Part 1: Rule-making and control of subordinate legislation..... 23
Objectives..... 23
Rule making and control of subordinate legislation..... 23
Introduction: The role and importance of subordinate legislation..... 24
Subordinate legislation..... 24
Source of executive power to make subordinate legislation..... 26
Principles governing subordinate legislation..... 26
Forms of subordinate legislation and statutory instruments..... 27
Accountability and control of subordinate legislation..... 28
Administrative law reform of subordinate legislation..... 29
The Legislative Instruments Act 2003..... 29
Public consultation on proposed rule-making..... 30
Publication of subordinate legislation..... 31
Parliamentary oversight: Tabling, scrutiny and disallowance..... 32
Senate scrutiny committees..... 33
Supervision of subordinate legislation by the courts..... 35
Part 1 Topic summary..... 36
Part 2: Executive policies, directions and representations..... 36
Objectives..... 36
Introduction: Sources of executive power..... 38
The role and meaning of policy..... 41

'Soft' law..... 42
Executive powers and duties..... 43
The legal consequence of ignoring or breaching a policy..... 47
Ministerial directions..... 48
Statutory directions..... 49
Administrative tribunals and government policy..... 50
Representations and estoppel..... 51
Contractual fetters on government authority..... 52
Part 2 Topic summary..... 54

Topic 3

Access to government information
Freedom of information
Privacy
Reasons

Objectives..... 55
Access to information..... 56
Freedom of information reform..... 57
Information Commissioner..... 58
Proposed changes to FOI fees and charges..... 58
Freedom of information..... 59
Objects of the Act: Reform proposals..... 59
Proposed reforms to exemption provisions..... 61
The 'public interest' test..... 62
Review of FOI decisions..... 62
Proposed reforms..... 63
Privacy..... 68
Reasons for decisions..... 71
Topic summary..... 77

Topic 4

The framework for challenging and controlling government action: Judicial review

Objectives..... 79
Introduction..... 80
Error of law..... 81
Judicial review and statutory interpretation..... 82
The framework for judicial review..... 82
Statutory Judicial Review..... 84
Administrative Decisions (Judicial Review) Act 1977..... 89
Topic summary..... 96

Topic 5

The framework for challenging and controlling government action: Merits review

Objectives..... 99
Introduction..... 99

Objectives of merits review..... 100
Specialist tribunals..... 101
Administrative Appeals Tribunal..... 102
Administrative tribunals – their role, structure and relation to government..... 105
Merits review: The concept and scope..... 105
Procedure and evidence in administrative tribunals..... 110
The process of review..... 112
Procedure in the Administrative Appeals Tribunal..... 112
Appeals..... 119
Topic summary..... 122

Topic 6

Other methods of administrative law review
Ombudsman
Human rights agencies
Alternative dispute resolution

Objectives..... 123
Introduction..... 123
The Commonwealth Ombudsman..... 124
Introduction..... 124
Promoting good administration..... 124
History..... 124
Role and functions of the Ombudsman..... 125
Matter of administration..... 127
Human rights agencies..... 129
Alternative dispute resolution in administrative law..... 130
Topic summary..... 131

Topic 7

Standing to seek review: Common law and statutory tests for standing

Objectives..... 133
Introduction..... 133
Historical antecedents..... 135
The role of the Attorney-General..... 135
Foundation cases..... 138
Other statutory phrases..... 147

Administrative Appeals Tribunal Act: 'Interests affected'..... 147
Special issues..... 150
Topic summary..... 156

Topic 8

Part 1: Judicial review and the criteria for lawful decision-making
Part 2: Unauthorised decision-making

Introduction..... 159

Objectives..... 159
Part 1: Judicial review and the criteria for lawful decision-making..... 159
The concept and scope of judicial review..... 159
The jurisprudential foundation of judicial review..... 160
The legality/merits distinction..... 166
Formulating the grounds for judicial review..... 171
Judicial substitution of a new decision..... 173
The jurisdictional (or objective) fact concept..... 176
Judicial deference and restraint..... 179
Judicial restraint in the scrutiny of administrative reasons..... 181
Part 2: Unauthorised decision-making..... 182
Unauthorised decision-making: General principles..... 183
Executive power as a source of legal authority for government action..... 187
Unauthorised decision-making: Relevant principles of statutory construction..... 189
Common law approaches, assumptions and presumptions..... 191
Unauthorised decision-making: subordinate legislation..... 195
The regulate/prohibit distinction..... 198
The means/ends distinction..... 199
Unreasonableness as a test of invalidity..... 201
Reasonable proportionality and the purpose/subject matter distinction..... 202
Unauthorised decision-making..... 204
Unauthorised decision-making: Special Issues..... 207
Topic summary..... 209

Topic 9

The criteria for lawful decision-making
Part 1: Legislative scope and purpose
Part 2: Law, fact and evidence
Introduction..... 211
Objectives..... 211
Part 1: Legislative scope and purpose..... 212
Introduction: Acting for an unauthorised purpose..... 212
Considering irrelevant matters..... 215
Failing to consider relevant matters..... 217
Relevant considerations and statutory interpretation..... 218
Statutory implication..... 222
Part 2: Law, fact and evidence..... 223
Introduction..... 223
No evidence..... 225
No evidence as a ground of review at common law..... 225
No evidence as a ground for judicial review under the ADJR Act..... 228
Judicial review of fact-finding errors..... 230
Topic summary..... 235

Topic 10

The criteria for lawful decision-making
Part 1: Breach of statutory duty
Part 2: Wednesbury unreasonableness, good administration and the outer limits of legality

Objectives..... 237
Part 1: Breach of statutory duty..... 237
Introduction..... 237
Statutory duty to make a decision or exercise a power..... 238
Statutory duty to provide a service..... 240
Statutory duty to enforce and implement the law..... 241
Non-judicial enforcement of statutory duties..... 242
Part 2: Wednesbury unreasonableness, good administration and the outer limits of legality…….. 242
Introduction..... 242
The development of Wednesbury unreasonableness..... 243
Wednesbury unreasonableness: The border between legality and merits..... 244
Types of Wednesbury unreasonableness..... 245
Illustrative cases and categories..... 247
Evidentiary weighting..... 250
Duty of inquiry..... 251
Limitations on the scope of the duty of inquiry..... 252
Unjustified unequal treatment..... 253
Proportionality..... 253
Bad faith and fraud..... 254
The limits of legality..... 255
Statutory unreasonableness..... 255
Topic summary..... 256

Topic 11

Natural justice/procedural fairness

Objectives..... 257
Introduction: History, rationale, application..... 257
Rationale for the doctrine..... 258
Historical development..... 259
Flexible application..... 260
When natural justice applies..... 261
The hearing rule: General tests..... 262
Legitimate expectation..... 262
The hearing rule: General tests..... 266
The rule against bias..... 271
Consequences of a breach of the rules of procedural fairness..... 275
The limits of procedural fairness..... 276
Topic summary..... 278

Topic 12

Remedying unlawful government action
Part 1: The consequences of unlawful decision-making
Part 2: Constitutional writs and statutory remedies

Objectives..... 281
Part 1: The consequences of unlawful decision-making..... 281

Introduction: Rival theories of invalidity..... 281
The consequences of unlawful decision-making..... 282
Separation of powers and the presumption of regularity..... 283
Breach of associated statutory requirements..... 286
Protection of an invalidity by parliament: Privative/ouster/preclusion clauses..... 290
Jurisdictional error and invalidity..... 296
Severance and invalidity..... 302
Part 2: Judicial review remedies..... 302
Types of orders: The contitutional writs..... 303
Certiorari..... 303
Prohibition..... 305
Mandamus..... 305
Habeas corpus..... 306
Injunction..... 307
Declaration..... 308
Statutory judicial review remedies..... 309
Judicial discretion to refuse relief..... 313
Summary..... 315