

One-Page Curriculum Vitae (full CV available upon request)

Andrew T. Huse

1919 E. Clifton St. Tampa, FL 33610
Work: 813-974-7622 Home: 813-523-7553
ahuse@lib.usf.edu

Employment: Librarian, University of South Florida Tampa Library Special Collections and Florida Studies Center. 2005-present.

Freelance food writer and author. 1999-present.

Instructor, USF Honors College. "Foodways in Florida and Beyond." 2008-present.

Education: Master's of Library and Information Science, University of South Florida, 2005.

M.A. History (Modern American and Latin American). USF, 2000.

Publications

Books: Florida's Delicious History: Restaurants and Culture in the Sunshine State. In Progress.

"Cuban Sandwich City" (book chapter) To appear in Cornbread Nation 5: The best of Southern food writing. Publication pending.

The Columbia Restaurant: Celebrating a century of history, culture, and cuisine (University Press of Florida, Gainesville. 2009.)

The University of South Florida: The first fifty years. (USF, Tampa. 2006) Lead researcher.

Seabreeze by the Bay Cookbook (American Printing, USA. 2001.) Co-author.

Periodicals: Cigar City Magazine, Forum (Florida Humanities Council), The Sunland Tribune, Metro Mix, Creative Loafing, and Tampa Bay History.

Teaching experience: USF St. Petersburg's Florida Studies Program and USF Honors College.

Lecture experience: The Southern Foodways Alliance, Gulf South Conference, Florida Historical Society, American Library Association, Florida Library Association, the Florida Humanities Council's Roads Scholar Program (at least 30 lectures), the Florida Humanities Council's Center for Teachers, the Florida State Museum, Florida Philanthropic Network, and various other venues.