Professor Nathan Lewis Awarded Top Prize at New Haven Art Exhibition

Nathan Lewis

News Story: April 2, 2013

Nathan Lewis, assistant professor of art and design, took top honors recently at the Paint & Clay Club's 112th "Annual Juried Exhibition" at the John Slade Ely House in New Haven. The highly competitive event attracted artists from all over New England. Lewis' prize-winning oil painting titled "Orpheus" was purchased by the Paint & Clay Club for its permanent collection. Lewis' painting will be on display through April 14.

Lewis will also be included in a two-person opening exhibition at the Community College of Rhode Island in Warwick. His display titled, A Life of Looking: Fred Dalkey and Nathan Lewis, will be featured in the Knight Campus Gallery from April 3-27. The exhibition has been reviewed in the current issue of Art New England. The opening reception will be Tuesday, April 9 from 4 to 7 p.m.
