January 2008

Organic Regulation Establishing an Internal Affairs Unit in Customs
The present regulation creates a set of rules for the Internal Affairs Sector (SPO) aimed at implementing a complaints collection procedure and recent legislation pertaining to the fight against corruption. This regulation defines the procedures which the SPO will follow in cases when the SPO receives a complaint related to corruption or other disciplinary problems in the Customs Agency.

Chapter I. GENERAL PROVISIONS RELATED TO SPO

Article 1: Objectives of the Regulation

Article 2: Definitions

Article 3: Competencies of the SPO

Article 4: Organisation of the SPO

Article 5: SPO’s Delegated Authority over Customs Officials

Article 6: Managerial Responsibility for Misconduct (Respondeat Superior)

Chapter II: PROCEDURES FOR HANDLING COMPLAINTS MADE TO THE SPO

Article 7: Types of complaints

Article 8: Information contained in complaints

Article 9: Case Allocation Procedure

Article 10: Complaint Termination Deadline

Article 11: Director’s Liability for Inability to Deal with Complaint Volume

Article 12: Informing the Accused of Complaint

Article 13: Procedures for Dealing with Face-to-Face Interviews

Article 14: Recommended courses of action

Section 15: Internal Misconduct Audit

Article 16: Quality Control of Complaint Resolution

Chapter 17: Data Protection, Retention Practices of the SPO and Freedom of Information

Chapter 18: Incentives for Compliance

Chapter III: PROCEDURES TO FOLLOW IN CASES OF POTENTIAL CONFLICT OF INTEREST

Chapter 19: SPO obligation to enforce Conflict of Interests Law

Chapter 20: Obligations and Rights Given to the SPO under Conflict of Interests Law

Chapter 21: Recording and Auditing the Register of Interests

Chapter 22: SPO Obligations related to Gift-Giving

Article 23: SPO Obligations to Post-Employment Monitoring

Article 24: SPO Handling of Service File Warnings

Article 25: Mitigation, Rectification and the Duty to Assist

Chapter IV: IMPLEMENTING THE LAW ON OMBUDSMAN AND THE ANTI-CORRUPTION LAW

Article 26: Relations with Ombudsman

Article 27: Whistleblower Immunity and Witness Indemnification

Article 28: Asset Declaration

Article 29: Complaints about Customs Agency’s Discretion Made to State Commission

Chapter V: TRAINING AND PUBLIC AWARENESS

Article 30: Minimum Training and Accreditation Standards for SPO Staff

Article 31: Public Awareness about the Present Regulation

Chapter VI: TRANSITORY PROVISIONS

Article 32: Consultation

Article 33: Conflict of Laws and Dispute Resolution

Article 34: Execution
This regulation has been drafted thanks to the EU taxpayer and elaborated by a public academic. The text of the regulation, therefore, may only be used for not-for-profit, public policy purposes.

This regulation is only available to academic researchers (particularly in new institutional economics), government officials or members of international organisations working on establishing ethics or internal ombudsman offices on a pro-bono basis.

Employees of consulting firms, bilateral aid agencies and charities and NGOs may not receive a copy (due to the accrual of personal benefits to particular individuals).

If you fall into the former category, please contact me (bryane.michael@linacre.ox.ac.uk) for a copy of the model regulation.