

Jeana C. Rogers

Experienced teacher and technologist with the technical and communication skills required to collaborate with faculty who desire to integrate technology into their teaching and learning.

Objective

To obtain a position as an Instructional Designer in Indiana.

Education

- Masters of Science in Educational Technology - Indiana State University, Terre Haute, Indiana – December 2008
- Bachelors of Science in Computer Management Science – Metropolitan State College, Denver, Colorado - 1983

Summary of Qualifications

- Over 20 years experience teaching computer skills and supporting technology, including 15 years working in an educational environment.
- Developed sustained relationships with faculty and students in order to promote the affective and efficient use of technology in the classroom.
- Managed large scale and high-end computer labs, responsible for recommending over $100,000 of software and hardware purchases annually.
- Taught hundreds of computer classes for faculty, staff and students ranging from introduction courses to two day customized workshops.

Professional Experience

Instructional Media Specialist

2004 – Present

Information Technology Services

Wabash College

Crawfordsville, Indiana

Wabash College is a liberal arts college for men.

- Support faculty who desire to integrate technology into their curriculum by collaborating with them to determining the appropriate technology required for their pedagogical needs.
- Work with faculty to develop instructional components to their courses.
- Established the Wabash College iTunes U site and managed the Virtual Media Reserves, used to distribute audio and video content to the classroom and the public.
- Work with various departments on campus to produce high quality video productions that promote and inform the community, alumni and prospects about Wabash College.
- Manage the Media Center and 17 student workers where over 220 production jobs are completed for faculty and staff each semester.
- Co-teach classes with faculty in order to train students on specific software required to complete assignments for their coursework.

Macintosh Support Specialist
Information Technology Services
Wabash College
Wabash College is a liberal arts college for men.

2003 – 2004

Crawfordsville, Indiana

- Maintained software and diagnosed hardware problems for all Macintosh labs and desktop systems on campus, over 100 computers.
- Provide support and consultation to faculty and staff who have computer issues.
- Developed and installed Macintosh computer images for desktop systems, public labs and department labs.
- Taught Freshman Orientation computer classes, delivered Tech Talks and assisted with Help Desk calls.

Coordinator of Management Information Services

F.W. Gartner Co./Gartner Coatings, Inc.

An equipment rental and coating applications specialist company.

1997 – 2003

Houston, Texas

- Designed award winning web site for RER (Rental Equipment Registrar) Magazine, 1999.
- Installed and supported hardware and software on desktop computers and sales force laptops.
- Developed FileMaker Pro database for sales force to track contacts and leads.
- Created forms, procedures and documentation to track and coordinate critical office information.

Computer Consultant

JCR and Associates

Macintosh Consulting

1994 – 1997

Houston, Texas

- Consulted with small businesses on technology purchases, solved software and hardware problems and network issues.
- Developed the University of Texas Health Science Center's first web site.
- Designed and developed database projects for small businesses to track contacts and products.
- Taught computer classes at Micro Center Computer Store on various Microsoft and Adobe products.

Help Desk Manager/Macintosh Support

University of Houston

Information Technology

A leading public research University.

1984 – 1993

Houston, Texas

- Support faculty and staff using Macintosh computers in the newly created User Services Department.
- Taught New Employee training classes weekly.
- Developed training and documentation for Macintosh users.

College and University Services and Special Projects

2008 - Present Copyright Committee, Wabash College
2007 Co-founder, Macintosh Student Users Group, Wabash College
2006 - Present Documentary Filmmaker for joint venture between Shifting Ideas Through Education for African Women and Wabash College
2006-2007 Student Research Celebration Committee, Wabash College
2005 – Present Multimedia support for Present Indiana Project (Lilly Grant), Wabash College
2004 Founder, Macintosh Users Group, Wabash College
1989 - 1990 Information Technology Standards Committee, University of Houston

Professional Conference Presentations

Using Digital Video for Self Reflection and Assessment of Pre Service Teacher Instruction (with Dr. Mindy Welch, Butler University) - Independent Colleges of Indiana Instructional Technology Summit, August 2009, Taylor University
Development of an Online Tutorial using Camtasia Studio (with Kenetha Frisby and Sally Neal, Butler University)- Independent Colleges of Indiana Instructional Technology Summit, August 2009, Taylor University
Educational Technology in Teacher Education at Wabash College - Teaching and Learning with Technology Conference, March 2008, Purdue University
Educational Technology in Teacher Education at Wabash College – Independent Colleges of Indiana Instructional Technology Summit, August 2008, DePauw University
Poster session, NITTE Instructional Technology Leaders Conference – Washington and Lee University, Spring 2008
Videography, NITTE Workshop to Go – Spring 2005

Technical Skills and Certifications

2005 Apple Certified Pro, DVD Studio Pro
2004 Apple Certified Pro, Final Cut Pro – Level One
2004 Apple Certified Technical Coordinator
2004 Apple Technical Certification-OSX Server Essentials

Professional Memberships

ISTE
AECT