

KATHLEEN A. BRADY

Villanova University School of Law
299 North Spring Mill Road
Villanova, Pennsylvania 19085
brady@law.villanova.edu
(610) 519-5825

EDUCATION

YALE LAW SCHOOL	J.D. 1994 Yale Law Journal , Senior Editor
YALE DIVINITY SCHOOL	M.A.R. (Master of Arts in Religion) 1991 Honors : summa cum laude
YALE COLLEGE	B.A., Political Science, 1989 (political philosophy interdisciplinary concentration) Honors : magna cum laude , distinction in the major

LAW TEACHING EXPERIENCE

Villanova University School of Law, Villanova, PA
Associate Professor of Law, 2003 to present
Visiting Assistant Professor of Law, 2002-03
Courses: Law and Religion, Decedents' Estates and Trusts I, Decedents' Estates and Trusts II.

University of Richmond School of Law, Richmond, VA
Assistant Professor of Law, 2000-02
Courses: Law and Religion, Wills and Trusts I, Wills and Trusts II.

Emory University School of Law, Atlanta, GA
Fellow in Law and Religion and Lecturer in Law, 1998-99
Courses: Law and Religion

PUBLICATIONS

Religious Organizations and Free Exercise: The Surprising Lessons of Smith, 2004 Brigham Young University Law Review (forthcoming)

Catholic Social Thought in the Public Square: Deconstructing the Demand For Public Accessibility, 1 Journal of Catholic Social Thought 203-29 (2004)

Religious Organizations and Mandatory Collective Bargaining under Federal and State Labor Laws: Freedom From and Freedom For, 49 Villanova Law Review 77-167 (2004).

Reflections on the Light: Judge Noonan's Contributions to the Debate on Religion in the Public Square, 1 University of St. Thomas Law Journal 480-503 (2003).

The Push to Private Religious Expression: Are We Missing Something?, 70 Fordham Law Review 1147-1242 (2002).

Fostering Harmony Among the Justices: How Contemporary Debates in Theology Can Help to Reconcile the Divisions on the Court Regarding Religious Expression by the State, 75 Notre Dame Law Review 433-577 (1999).

Putting Faith Back into Constitutional Scholarship: A Defense of Originalism, 36 Catholic Lawyer 137-201 (1995).

CONFERENCES/ PRESENTATIONS

Commentator, Conference on “Roger Williams’ Gift: Religious Liberty in America and Beyond,” Roger Williams University School of Law, October 15, 2004

Faculty Seminar Guest Speaker, “Religious Organizations and Free Exercise,” Arizona State University College of Law, March, 29, 2004

Presenter, “Church Autonomy Conference,” Brigham Young University Law School, February 6-7, 2004

Presenter, Symposium on “God, the Person, History, and the Law: Themes from the Work of John T. Noonan, Jr.,” University of St. Thomas School of Law, Minneapolis, MN, October 17-18, 2003

Presenter, Symposium on “Catholic Social Thought and the Law,” Villanova University School of Law, October 3-4, 2003

Presenter, 50th Anniversary Symposium, “The Next Fifty Years in the Law,” Villanova University School of Law, September 13, 2003

Panelist, The War, Islam, and God, University of Richmond, October 18, 2001

Rapporteur and Member of the Drafting Committee, Matters of Faith: Religion in American Public Life, Report of the Ninety-Sixth American Assembly, Columbia University, held at Arden House, Harriman, NY, March 23-26, 2000

Participant, The Lilly Seminar on Religion and Higher Education: Religion and Scholarship: Present Positions, Future Prospects? held at University of Notre Dame, Notre Dame, IN, March 5-6, 1999

LEGAL EXPERIENCE

The Honorable John T. Noonan, Jr., U.S. Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit, San Francisco, CA, 1997-98
Judicial Clerk

Office of the General Counsel, Yale University, New Haven, CT, 1995-97
Assistant to the General Counsel

Conducted legal research and analysis in a wide variety of areas, including, for example, trusts and estates, charitable corporations, state and federal taxation, constitutional law, labor law, and disability law. Drafted memoranda, prepared legal documents, and developed facts including through personal interviews. Worked closely with University officials and outside counsel including extensive participation in litigation regarding unfair labor practice charges arising out of a “grade strike” by graduate teaching assistants.

National Academy of Social Insurance, Washington, D.C., 1994-95

Project Associate

Conducted research and analysis for the Disability Policy Panel of the National Academy of Social Insurance and assisted with the drafting of Panel recommendations in the areas of Medicare, Medicaid, the Earned Income Tax Credit, Personal Assistance Services, and the work incentive provisions of the Social Security Disability Insurance and Supplemental Security Income programs.

Office of United States Senator James M. Jeffords, Washington, D.C., Summer 1993.

Prepared summary materials for Senator Jeffords' "MediCORE National Health Care Bill." Revised sections of the MediCORE Bill. Researched and prepared a briefing book for Senator Jeffords' trade mission to Taiwan in August of 1993. Researched and prepared a memorandum on questions of U.S. copyright law.

Christian Legal Society's Center for Law and Religious Freedom, Annandale, VA, Summer 1992.

Researched and drafted memoranda on the freedom of association and on the application of state antidiscrimination laws to the leadership and membership choices of student religious groups meeting on public high school and college campuses.

BAR MEMBERSHIP

Member of the Connecticut and District of Columbia Bars.

SPECIAL INTERESTS

Landscape painting. Produced ninety paintings in oil. Participated in group exhibits, through which several works have been sold. Paintings include scenes in Connecticut, California, England, Wales and Italy; several series of scenes in Washington, D.C.; and several series of rural Maryland and Delaware landscapes.