EXPERIENCE

- 2010-11 Professor and Interim Dean of Libraries, University of Tennessee
- Lead University Libraries to excellence in meeting the needs of a preeminent public research university. Articulate a clear strategic vision and translate it into concrete objectives. Maintain and advance the Libraries' implementation of innovative approaches to library management and services. Advocate for the Libraries within the university and larger community. The University Libraries has an annual budget of more than $16.5 million and approximately $1.5 million in endowment income; the more than 200 employees include 44 library faculty.
- 2008-10 Professor and Head, Scholarly Communication, University of Tennessee
- Lead library publishing initiatives such as the digital imprint, Newfound Press, and the campus institutional repository. Increase campus awareness of scholarly communication issues related to intellectual property, the economics of scholarly publishing, alternative publishing models, and access to scholarly resources. Co-chair the university committee on scholarly communication; engage faculty and administrators in discussion of trends; educate library staff and faculty about communication issues; collaborate with regional and national partners to promote open access and financially sustainable models of scholarly communication. Supervise one support staff position and 1.25 FTE librarians.
- 1997-2007 Professor and Head, Collection Development & Management, University of Tennessee
- Direct collection development and management activities for the UT Libraries. Report to the Dean of Libraries; provide leadership for all collection-related activities, including allocation of state and endowed funds of over $8 million; assessment; and preservation in a collaborative organizational environment. Participate in library management, planning, and decision-making through the Library Management Group and its subgroups. CDM Team includes 6 librarians and 8 FTE support staff. Supervise Coordinators for Collection Management, Preservation, and Electronic Services; co-supervise Coordinators for Humanities, Social Sciences, and Science & Technology. Chair the Collection Development & Management Advisory Group.
- 1992-97 Professor and Head, Networked Services, University of Tennessee
- Direct 4 librarians and 13 support staff who provided interlibrary loan, audiovisual services, electronic services, distance education services, and cooperative information services. Initiated library developmental projects and provided leadership for statewide networking.

- 1989-91 Associate Professor and Head, Cooperative Information Services (Acting Head, Serials Department, 2/91-8/91), University of Tennessee
- Team included 2 librarians and 8 support staff. Functions included interlibrary services, cooperative collection development, and development of partnerships with local and statewide information providers.
- 1986-88 Associate Professor and Head, Science and Technology Services, University of Tennessee
- Advocate for information services supporting science and technology. Provide reference and collection development service for the College of Engineering. Coordinate Library Program Review.
- 1977-86 Assistant Professor and Head, Undergraduate Library Reference (promoted to Associate Professor, with tenure, 1980; Acting Head, Undergraduate Library, 1981-82), The University of Tennessee, Knoxville
- Direct a department of 7 reference librarians and 3 FTE graduate library science students who provide reference, library instruction, and collection development services for 20,000 undergraduate students.
- 1972-77 Instructor and Head, Agricultural Technical Institute Library (Wooster), The Ohio State University (tenure awarded 1977)
- Initiate and organize comprehensive library services for a new two-year technical institute in the OSU College of Agriculture. Consult on library design; select furniture and equipment; supervise move into new facilities. Develop and implement library instruction program. Supervise one library technical assistant and 2 support staff. Collection grew to 20,000 volumes, 300 periodical titles, and 500 audiovisual programs during my leadership.
- 1971-72 Instructor and Assistant Head, Quick Editing Division, The Ohio State University
- Unit implemented OCLC at OSU. Supervised 10 staff who performed activities related to copy cataloging. Volunteer a few hours per week at the catalog assistance desk.
- 1970-71 Instructor and Cataloger, Special Purchases Processing Unit, The Ohio State University
- Catalog British and American fiction acquired by OSU through the outright purchase of two bookstore collections. Most items required original cataloging and extensive reference searching for authority control.
