A chart like this cannot guarantee a strict chronology. Some gospel sections seem to Obscurity • Time spent in Judea #4 -John 11:55 185 be topical rather than chronological. There have been many harmonies written on the Life of Christ and • Many sign miracles plus Jesus' words • Transition to Galilee and Capernaum not all agree on the exact sequence of events. This is one attempt at a harmonization. A reading of the essays in the back of the harmony referenced below is recommended for further consideration. • The beginning of more miracles

The chronology is based on Harold Hoehner, Chronological Aspects of the Life of Christ, Grand Rapids: Zondervan, 1977. *Numbers on the circle and next to items in boxes relate to Section numbers in Robert L. Thomas and Stanley N. Gundry, A Harmony of the Gospels (NASB). Chicago: HarperOne (HarperCollins Publishers), 1978.
