

PROFESSOR WILLA E. GIBSON

302 Buchtel Common
University of Akron Law School
Akron, Ohio 44325

EDUCATIONAL BACKGROUND

Drake University School of Law
J.D., May 1991
Honors Graduate; Drake Law Review

Tulane University, Newcomb College
Bachelor of Arts, Economics, May 1982

SUBJECTS TAUGHT

Secured Transactions – UCC Article 9
Law & Economics
Antitrust
Corporations
Securities Regulation
Consumer Law; Consumer Credit Lending

PUBLICATIONS

Deposit Account Financing under Revised Article 9, UCC Bulletin, Thomson West (January 2007)

A Comprehensive Review of Revised Article 9, Carolina Academic Press (2006)

Banks Reign Supreme under the Deposit Rules of Revised Article 9, Delaware Corporation of Law

Willa E. Gibson, Is Hedge Fund Regulation Necessary? 73 Temple Law Review 681 (2000)

Willa E. Gibson, Are Swap Agreements Securities or Futures? 24 Journal of Corporation Law (1999)

Willa E. Gibson, Investors Look Before You Leap 29 Loyola L.J. 527 (1998)

WORK IN PROGRESS

Treatise on Revised Article 9, Vanderplas Publications

An Economic Analysis of the Allocative Efficiency of Federal and State Distribution Rules When a Broker Becomes Insolvent.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCES

August 1995 – present

Professor of Law
Akron University School of Law
Akron, Ohio 44325

July 1991 – June 1995

Finance Attorney, Senior Counsel
United States Securities and Exchange Commission-
Enforcement Division
Washington, D.C. 20549

April 1984 – Aug. 1988

Commercial Loan Analyst and Lender
Norwest Financial, Inc. (purchased by Wells Fargo)
Des Moines, Iowa

