SUMMARY

I am Professor and Head, Acquisitions in the University Libraries at the University of Rhode Island, where I administer the materials budget of over $5.4 million and am responsible for the purchase and licensing of library materials in all formats and the management of electronic resources.

From 2014-2015, I served on the University Libraries' Ex Libris Implementation Team and am an Ex Libris Alma Certified Administrator.

An advocate of open access and scholarly communication reform, I chaired the University's Ad-Hoc Committee on Open Access, playing an instrumental role in the passage of an open access policy by the University of Rhode Island faculty in 2013. From 2013-2015, I served as the first Faculty Senate Designate for the URI Open Access Policy. In 2013 I initiated the creation of the URI Open Access Fund to support publication in open access journals, and I am the fund administrator. I advocate for the University Libraries' support of collaborative open access initiatives including Annual Reviews Subscribe to Open, Berghahn Open Anthro, the DOAJ, Knowledge Unlatched, Language Science Press, Lever Press, Libraria, Luminos, LUP Open Planning, the Lyrasis Open Access Community Investment Program, MIT Press Direct to Open, OAPEN, Open Book Publishers, Open Library of Humanities, Opening the Future, Punctum Books, Reveal Digital, SCOAP3, and University of Michigan Press Fund to Mission.

I currently serve on the Libraria Advisory and Oversight Board. In 2017, I joined NISO's KBART Standing Committee and served as Co-Chair from 2019 to 2023 during the development of KBART Phase III. Past professional service highlights include membership on the Open Library of Humanities Board, the Reveal Digital New Project Review Panel, the LYRASIS Academic Library eContent Advisory Group, Ex Libris' Alma "Ask an Expert" Focus Group, and serving as a peer reviewer for the Journal of Librarianship and Scholarly Communication. From 2013-2016 I was Vice-Chair then Co-Chair of the ACRL New England Chapter Scholarly Communication Interest Group.

At the university level, I have served on numerous committees and am an active member of the University of Rhode Island chapter of the AAUP, where I have completed two terms on the Executive Committee and served as Treasurer and on the Negotiating Team; I currently chair the Grievance and Conflict Resolution Committee. For over ten years, I served on the Board of Trustees of the South Kingstown Public Library.

From 2003-2009 I was Head, Serials Unit / Electronic Resources Librarian, during which time I coordinated the conversion of the vast majority of the Libraries' periodical subscriptions to online format. From 1995-2003 I held the position of Reference/ Bibliographer, Business and was active in developing the University Libraries' highly regarded information literacy program. From 1996 through 2023, I was the Libraries' subject selector and liaison for the College of Business, the Schmidt Labor Research Center, and the Departments of Economics and Environmental and Natural Resource Economics. From 1997-2017 I was the University Libraries' webmaster and co-webmaster.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Head, Acquisitions (Full Professor, Tenured)
University Libraries, University of Rhode Island, Kingston, RI
2009-present

Responsible for all library functions related to the purchase and licensing of electronic resources and print materials. Manage library materials budget of over $5.4 million; recommend priorities for the distribution of funds. Establish and maintain effective working relationships with publishers, vendors, and purchasing consortia. Research and assess products and services on offer. Negotiate pricing and work with the University's Office of General Counsel to negotiate license terms. Ensure the seamless availability of electronic resources through the Ex Libris Alma library management system; OCLC WorldShare Collection Manager, Springshare's LibGuides; OCLC's hosted EZproxy, Shibboleth via InCommon, and other authentication methods; and vendor websites. Retrieve MARC records for purchased electronic resources for loading by Metadata and Content Management Unit. Troubleshoot and resolve problems with online access to e-resources. Serve as one of the Libraries' two Ex Libris Certified Administrators. Gather and analyze acquisition, usage, and related statistics. Keep abreast of developments in the publishing and marketing of scholarly information resources, including open access purchasing models, and in acquisitions methods and technologies. Supervise a support staff of two. Former liaison and subject selector for business, labor relations and human resources, economics, and environmental and natural resource economics.

Head, Serials Unit / Electronic Resources Librarian (Associate Professor, Tenured)
University Libraries, University of Rhode Island, Kingston, RI
2003-2009

Managed the acquisition of periodicals in print and online formats. Supervised support staff responsible for serials check-in, claiming, and binding and for processing and mending of library materials; designed efficient, effective workflows and documented them in procedures. Managed electronic resources: activated new subscriptions, maintained library holdings in e-resource management tools, resolved access problems, gathered and analyzed usage statistics. Prepared annual renewal and initiated the transition to online-only format of the majority of the libraries' subscriptions. Coordinated serials cancellations in 2008 and 2009 totaling approximately $645,000. Liaison and subject selector for business, labor relations and human resources, economics, and environmental and natural resource economics.

Reference/Bibliographer, Business (Lecturer / Assistant Professor)
University Libraries, University of Rhode Island, Kingston, RI
1995-2003

Provided reference assistance to library users in all subject areas; served as reference subject specialist for business and related subjects. Key player in developing the University Libraries' information literacy program. Provided library instruction for first year introductory and writing classes and for undergraduate and graduate students in the University of Rhode Island's College of Business Administration, Labor Research Center, Department of Economics, and Department of Environmental and Natural Resource Economics. Taught sections of the libraries' one-credit course LIB140 Special Topics in Information Literacy and three-credit course LIB120 Introduction to Information Literacy. Produced library research guides on business and economics topics and user guides to library databases. Liaison and subject selector for business, labor relations and human resources, economics, and environmental and natural resource economics.
