Retreat Agenda 2018 - Research & Info Services
Dept. - University of Central Florida Libraries

Barbara Tierney, University of Central Florida
May 4, 2018, 9:15 am - 3:00 pm
John C. Hitt Library, Room 223

Research Intensive Designated Courses and Textbook Alternatives....
What is the role of UCF Librarians?

Agenda

9:15 - 9:30am  Morning snacks

9:30 - 9:45am  Welcome by Dr. Penny Beile, Assoc. Director Research, Education, & Engagement, and Barbara Tierney, Head, Research & Information Services

9:45 - 10:15am  Research Intensive Designated Courses
By Dr. Kevin Jardaneh, Assistant Director, Office of Undergraduate Research
Definition of Research-Intensive; Criteria for designating an existing course as RI; Number of RI courses; What OUR believes the role of Subject Librarians should be

10:15 - 10:30am  UCF Special Collections and Archival resources that support “Research Intensive Designated Courses” by David Benjamin, Head, Special Collections

10:30 - 11:00am  Case study of an English Dept. Research Intensive course
By Dr. Lisa Logan, English Department, and John Venecek, Humanities Subject Librarian,

11:00 - 11:30am  Case study of a Criminal Justice Research Intensive course
By Dr. Jill Viglione, Criminal Justice Department, and Dr. Corinne Bishop, Social Sciences Subject Librarian

11:30 - 12:00pm  Subject Librarian Research Intensive strategies: facilitated concurrent small group discussions
STEM Librarian group
Humanities Librarian group
Social Sciences Librarian group

12:15 - 1:00pm  Lunch on your own
See included page for on and off campus restaurant suggestions
1:00 - 1:30pm
Textbook Alternatives: Identifying online faculty who are likely candidates for library-sourced textbook alternatives, and Instructional Designers and their Subject Librarian counterparts working together on textbook alternatives
By John Raible, Instructional Designer, Center for Distributed Learning, and CDL colleagues

1:30 - 2:00pm
Case studies of Subject Librarian textbook alternative successes:
Rich Gause, Theater, Philosophy, Religious Studies
Min Tong, Business
Missy Murphey, Sociology
Sandy Avila, Physics

“Textbooks, textbook alternatives & course readings from library resources”
By Rich Gause
http://guides.ucf.edu/textbooks

2:00 - 2:30pm
Subject Librarian textbook alternative strategies:
facilitated concurrent small group discussions
STEM Librarian group
Humanities Librarian group
Social Sciences Librarian group

2:30 - 3:00pm
“Reporting-out” from morning and afternoon discussion groups

Please consider attending:
2018 Summer FCTL Individual Course Redesign Track…
Will this lead to additional Textbook Alternative opportunities?
Mon. May 7, 12:30-1:00:
Cengage will be presenting their tools for Textbook Affordability
Wed. May 9, 11:30-12:20:
A “Textbook Affordability Working Group” presentation by: Penny Beile, Aimee Denoyelles, Rich Gause, Anna Hall, Sarah Norris, John Raible