The Berkeley Electronic Press is pleased to announce the launch of an exciting new peer-reviewed journal in law. This is the 8th new journal added in 2006, and brings the journal collection total to 34.

The only peer-reviewed academic journal in the U.S. devoted to tort law, the Journal of Tort Law publishes cutting-edge scholarship in tort theory and jurisprudence from a range of interdisciplinary perspectives: comparative, doctrinal, economic, empirical, historical, philosophical, and policy-oriented. Spearheaded by editor-in-chief Jules Coleman (Yale) and some of the world’s most prominent tort scholars from the Columbia, Fordham, NYU, Vanderbilt, and University of Haifa law faculties, the journal is the premier source for original articles about tort law and jurisprudence.
