

Abbreviated Vita
Brian Mueller, Assistant Lecturer in Political Science

The University of Akron - Wayne College
1901 Smucker Rd., Orrville, OH 44667
E-mail – bcm26@uakron.edu

Education

Master of Applied Politics - University of Akron - GPA 3.979
B.A., Music, with Political Science minor - Slippery Rock University

Courses Taught

American Government and Politics (2013-present)

Relevant Graduate Coursework in Political Science at University of Akron
(all listed courses: 3 credit hours each)

Politics and the Media, Campaign Management I, Scope & Theories of Political Science, Campaign Management II, Research Methods in Political Science, Seminar in Political Influence and Organizations, Ohio Politics, Lobbying, Campaign and Election Law, Independent Research: Speechwriting, Survey Research Methods, Scholarly Writing and Professional Development in Political Science, Campaign Battlegrounds, Internship in Government and Politics

Related Experience in Government and Politics

Ohio Christian Alliance - Assistant to the President, 2012-2013
University of Akron - Graduate Assistant in Dep't of Political Science, 2011-2012

Scholarly Research

"Gapology Revisited: The Case of the 2008 Election". David R. Antonini, Brian C. Mueller, Seth T. Sykora-Bodie. Paper prepared for the 70th Annual Meeting, Pennsylvania Political Science Association, March 27-28, 2009, Elizabethtown, PA.