CICERO AND THE CATILINARIAN CONSPIRACY

An Illustrated Presentation

Dr. Charles Matson Odahl
CICERO AND THE CRISIS OF THE LATE REPUBLIC
Dr. Charles Odah1

Pompey, Cicero, and the Catilinarian Conspiracy

A. Pompey & Crassus - the Struggle for Eminence
Post-Sullan Commands (77 - 62)
- Pompey in Spain against Sertorius
- Crassus in Italy against Spartacus
- The Joint Consulship of 70 B.C.
- Pompey against the Pirates (67)
- Pompey against Mithridates (66 - 62)

B. Cicero & Catiline - Politics in the Shadow of Pompey
- The Novus Homo & Centrist Politics
- Cicero's Early Career in Law and Politics
- Support of the Boni and Alliance with Pompey
- The Corrupt Noble and the Struggle for Power
- Runs for the Consulship and Radical Politics
- Crassus and Caesar Building Bases of Power

C. The Catilinarian Conspiracy and Cicero's Triumph
- The Consular Campaign of 64
- The Oratio in Toga Candida vs. the Radical Popularis
- Cicero's Consulship (63)
- Defeats Lex Agraria of Rullus & Builds the Conjugatio
- Honorum Omnium
- Defeats Catiline's Final Electoral Bid
- Coniuratio Catilinae
- Violence in the City and Rebellions in Italy
- Cicero's Victory
- Information from Fulvia and Curius
- Letters from Crassus
- Senatus Consultum Ultimum (21 Oct.)
- Rebellian of Manlius at Faesulae (27 Oct.)
- Catiline's Final Plans
- In Catilinam I (8 Nov.)
- Catiline's Flight and In Catilinam II (9 Nov.)
- Lentulus, the Urban Conspiracy, & the Allobroges
- Capture of Evidence at the Mulvian Bridge (2 Dec.)
- In Catilinam III (3 Dec.)
- Senatorial Hearing & In Catilinam IV (5 Dec.)
- Deaths of the Urban Conspirators
- Defeat of Catiline at Pistoria
- Cicero Leaves Office as the Pater Patriae
- Pompey's Peaceful Return (62) & the Concordia Ordinum

Slides of Ciceronian Rome and Catilinian Faesulae