

We are looking forward to you joining us here at the White House tomorrow, Tuesday, June 21, 2016 for the Make Schools Alliance meeting during the National Week of Making. This event will feature remarks from Administration officials, panel conversations and break-out meetings. We are honored to have you join us alongside others from colleges and universities who are similarly leading efforts to empower, support, and inspire makers around the country.

ARRIVAL: Please plan to arrive between 8:00 and 8:15 AM to allow time to pass through security and into the meeting room. The arrival location is the Southwest Appointment Gate of the Eisenhower Executive Office building, located at 17th Street & State Place NW (see map below). Once inside the building, please follow proceed to room 430A (we will have staff stationed to help guide you in the right direct).

SECURITY INSTRUCTIONS: You will need to show your government-issued photo ID to enter the building. Please note that the name on your ID must exactly match the name you provided on your security clearance form. Additionally, certain states issue ID's that cannot be used for federal purposes. If your ID indicates not for federal use, you should bring another form of identification. Foreign nationals must present a passport and should email Loulyana\_T\_Saney@ostp.eop.gov once they pass through security.

ACCOMODATIONS: If you would like to request accommodations to meet your needs, please email Loulyana\_T\_Saney@ostp.eop.gov.

POINT OF CONTACT: If you encounter any issues at the gate, please see the staff we will have at the gate or call Louly Saney at (202) 456-6047. If she does not answer, please use the curtesy phone by picking it up, pressing "0", and asking for Andrew Coy.
