

Dominik Münch, BFTV – MFTV

Cinematographer & Photographer

PERSONAL DETAILS:

I am an experienced cinematographer and stills photographer with background on a wide selection of film, television, commercial and documentary projects. I was the first cinematographer to use the famous RED ONE HD camera on a commercial project in Australia in 2007 and also own a RED ONE production package. I hold a Bachelor & Masters Degree in Film and Television and currently complete my Doctor in Creative Arts on digital cinematography systems at Bond University where I also tutor photography.

For my "Sext Lingerie" commercial, I received a "Highly Commended Award" from the Australian Cinematographer's Society ACS in 2005. I was also the first cameraman to use the famous RED ONE HD camera on a commercial project in Australia in 2007.

My stills photography credits include lingerie, fashion and artistic work for various websites and advertising campaigns. I am also a photography teacher at Bond University.
