1996

Transtextualities: Of Cycles and Cyclicity in Medieval French Literature

Donald Maddox, University of Massachusetts - Amherst

Available at: https://works.bepress.com/donald_maddox/9/
Transtextualities
Of Cycles and Cyclicity in Medieval French Literature
Table of Contents

SARA STURM-MADDOX AND DONALD MADDOX
Introduction: Cyclicity and Medieval Literary Cycles 1

DAVID STAINES
The Medieval Cycle: Mapping a Trope 15

DONALD MADDOX
Cyclicity, Transtextual Coherence, and the Romances of Chretien de Troyes 39

CAROL R. DOVER
From Non-Cyclic to Cyclic Lancelot: Recycling the Heart 53

PAUL VINCENT ROCKWELL
"Je ne sui mie soffisanz": Insufficiency and Cyclicity in the Lancelot-Grail Cycle 71

JANE H. M. TAYLOR
The Sense of a Beginning: Genealogy and Plenitude in Late Medieval Narrative Cycles 93

MARY B. SPEER
Translatio as Inventio: Gaston Paris and the "Treasure of Rhampsinitus" (Gaza) in the Dolopathos Romance 125
TABLE OF CONTENTS

KIMBERLEE A. CAMPBELL
The Reiterated Self: Cyclical Temporality and Ritual Renewal in Hervis de Metz 157

ALAN E. KNIGHT
Cyclicity in Medieval French Drama 179

MICHEL-ANDRÉ BOSSY
Afterword 195

Transtextualities
Of Cycles and Cyclicity in Medieval French Literature