Ph.D., University of North Carolina at Greensboro, 2010.
Major: Higher Education/Educational Studies

M.S., Western Illinois University, 2000.
Major: College Student Personnel

B.S.Ed., State University of New York College at Geneseo, 1998.
Major: Elementary Education
Area of Emphasis: History

RESEARCH INTERESTS

My research interests are focused around the preparation and professional development of educational leaders. I have a particular interest in the preparation, development, and support of graduate/doctoral students and professionals in student affairs and higher education administration.

Related research interests include the impact of technology, mentorship, supervision, and gender on leadership and student learning.

TEACHING STATEMENT

My teaching interests include student affairs/higher education leadership and administration, history and foundations of student affairs/higher education, and the incorporation of technology into teaching and learning.

I enjoy working with students both in and outside of the classroom. It is my hope that through appropriate challenge and support, by providing concrete connections between theory and practice, and by providing personal mentorship and guidance, my students become active learners and leaders within higher education and/or the K-12 system.
