"Love is friendship set on fire." – unknown

"Love is an ideal thing, marriage a real thing." – Goethe

"If I love you what business is it of yours?" – Goethe

"Love is composed of a single soul inhabiting two bodies." – Aristotle

"To be in love is merely to be in a state of perceptual anesthesia." – H.L. Mencken

"There is more hunger for love and appreciation in this world than for bread" – Mother Theresa

"People who are sensible about love are incapable of it." – Douglas Yates

"Love is the master key that opens the gates of happiness." – Oliver Wendell Holmes

"Marriage is the triumph of imagination over intelligence. Second marriage is the triumph of hope over experience." – Samuel Johnson

"WHERE LOVE IS, NO ROOM IS TOO SMALL." – Talmud

"Love is grand; divorce is a hundred grand." – Aron

"There is a place you can touch a woman that will drive her crazy. Her heart." – Melanie Griffith

"I seem to have loved you in numberless forms, numberless times, in life after life, in age after age forever." – Rabindranath Tagore

"If I am pressed to say why I loved him, I feel it can only be explained by replying: 'Because it was he; because it was me.'" – Montaigne

"A love song is just a caress set to music." – Sigmund Romberg

"I never knew how to worship until I knew how to love." – Henry Ward Beecher

"Other men have seen angels, But I have seen thee, And thou art enough." – G. Moore

"Whoever called it necking was a poor judge of anatomy." – Groucho Marx

"Life in Lubbock, Texas, taught me two things: One is that God loves you and you're going to burn in hell. The other is that sex is the most awful, filthy thing on earth and you should save it for someone you love." – Butch Hancock

"Love is like quicksilver in the hand. Leave the fingers open and it stays. Clutch it, and it darts away." – Dorothy Parker

"Love is never lost. If not reciprocated, it will flow back and soften and purify the heart." – Washington Irving

"I was never one to patiently pick up broken fragments and glue them together again and tell myself that the mended whole was as good as new. What is broken is broken – and I'd rather remember it as it was at its best than mend it and see the broken places as long as I lived." Margaret Mitchell

"Love is the irresistible desire to be irresistibly desired." – Mark Twain

"Love is an act of endless forgiveness, a tender look which becomes a habit." – Peter Ustinov
