Angelus Ad Virginum

Arr. Malcolm Pearce
Eleanor Daley
Contemporary

When the angel came secretly to the Virgin in her room, soothing the maiden’s fear, he said, “Hail! Hail Queen of virgins. While yet untouched by man you shall conceive and bear the Lord of heaven and earth, salvation for mankind. You have become the gate of heaven, a remedy for sins.” “How can I conceive, since I have not known a man? How can I break the vow I made with firm intent?” “The grace of the Holy Spirit shall bring all this to pass. Fear not, but rejoice, secure in the knowledge that pure chastity shall remain yours through God’s mighty power.”

To this the noble Virgin replied, saying: “I am the lowly handmaiden of Almighty God. I bend my will to you, O celestial messenger, who share so great a mystery, and I long to see performed what I now hear. I am ready to yield myself to God’s design.” Ah, mother of the Lord, who gave back peace to angels and mankind when you bore Christ, pray your son to be gracious to us, and wipe away our sins, granting us aid to enjoy a blessed life after this exile.
