DOLORES L. HERNANDEZ
CLINICIAN / CONDUCTOR

DOLORES L. HERNANDEZ is currently in 32nd year of teaching with the Ysleta Independent School District where she has taught choral music at the elementary, middle and high school levels. She is a product of YISD herself, having graduated from Bel Air High School in 1972. She holds a bachelor’s and master’s in music education from Texas Tech University.

Currently she is teaching music at Lancaster Elementary School. Over the years she has served in the professional capacity as adjudicator, clinician, consultant, mentor, accompanist and coordinator for various choral contests and festivals here in El Paso and and San Antonio. From 1992 to 1995, she worked for Texas Education Agency by serving on the Texas Essential Knowledge and Skills Writing Team for Fine Arts, as the West Texas Representative. She has served as a Region 22 officer and middle school choir coordinator for the Texas Music Educators Association and is currently a member of the Texas Choral Directors Association and Music Educators National Conference. In 2003, she represented MENC as a presenter at the TMEA Convention in San Antonio, where her presentation was “Overcoming Obstacles to Success” in keeping a middle school choral program alive. She has served on several music textbook adoption committees, and in 1999, was a contributing consultant to the Glencoe publication of “Texas Choral Connections”, which was adopted in Texas schools that year. She was honored as a campus “Teacher of the Year” in 2000 when she taught at Indian Ridge Middle School.

ELISA FRASER WILSON

ELISA FRASER WILSON is Assistant Professor of Voice and Music Theatre at UTEP. Her duties include directing the Women’s Glee Club, Music Theatre Company, teaching courses in music theatre repertory and commercial vocal styles, and coordinating UTEP’s BFA in Music Theatre. Dr. Wilson holds degrees in music education and performance from the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign and Wichita State University (KS) and a doctoral degree in Choral Conducting and Literature from the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign.

Prior to moving to El Paso in 1998, Dr. Wilson taught choral music at Champaign Central High School in Champaign IL. She has worked with young people in music since 1986, directing summer musical theater programs and community youth choirs and providing individual voice instruction. Former employers include the Decatur, Illinois Recreation Department, Millikin University (IL) and the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign.

Dr. Wilson is also an active performer with experience in a variety of musical styles including opera, musical theater, jazz and popular music. Since moving to the El Paso area, she has appeared with the UTEP Union Dinner Theater, the UTEP Theater and Opera Departments, the UTEP Jazz Bands and Commercial Music Faculty, the El Paso Chamber Choir and the El Paso Opera Company. Favorite appearances include performances with the El Paso Opera Company as Annina in La Traviata, with the UTEP Union Dinner Theater as Eva Peroni in Evita and Victoria Grant in Victor/Victoria, and with the Music Theatre Company as Mama Euralie in Once On This Island and Camille Penza in Romeo and Bernadette.
