OUTSTANDING MUSIC ALUMNUS 2009

Ida Steadman

Ida Steadman is a graduate of the University of Texas at El Paso, and completed a Master of Fine Arts Degree in Performance at the University of Georgia. She directs the orchestras at Morehead Middle School and Coronado High School, and is the principal cellist for the El Paso Symphony Orchestra.

Ida is married to Hane Steadman, Jr. who is the owner of Landscape West. They have four children and four grandchildren.

Ida has taught for the El Paso ISD for 40 years. She has also held positions in Artesia, New Mexico; Athens, Georgia; Texas Tech Band and Orchestra Camp; Colorado State University Band and Orchestra Camp; and Arts Encounter, Bartlesville, Oklahoma. She served as interim conductor for the El Paso Youth Symphony and has been adjudicator or clinician for TMEA, TODA, Colorado MIENC, Greater Southwest Music Festival, American Classic Music Festivals, UIL Orchestra Contests, and All Region orchestra conductor for TMEA Region VIII.

Ida is past chairperson for Region 22 of TMEA, past president of TODA and is a member of ASTA, AF of M, Music Forum of El Paso, Delta Kappa Gamma, and Mu Omicron.

Ida has been recognized in the El Paso Community with lifetime membership in the Texas PTA, named the outstanding ex-student from Burges High School in 1989-90; and was awarded the prestigious "Conquistador Award" from Mayor Azar in 1989. She was selected by the American String Teachers Association for the "Elizabeth Green School Educator Award" in 2000 and carried the Olympic Torch for the Salt Lake Olympics in 2002.

The Coronado High School Orchestra, under her direction, has travelled extensively and performed all over the world. This past March the orchestra travelled across Japan on a four-concert tour which concluded at Tokyo Disneyland. The Coronado Orchestra has performed at the Mid-West International Band and Orchestra Clinic twice and has been selected as Honor Orchestra for TMEA three times. The Coronado Orchestra won first place in 1984 and second and third place trophies in 2000 at the prestigious Youth and Music Festival in Vienna.
