“Should I Copy That Photograph?” Real-world Duplication Quandaries

Erin Passehl, Boise State University
“Should I Copy That Photograph?”
Real World Duplication Quandaries

Erin Passehl
Boise State University
2010 Western Round-Up Panel Presentation
April 30, 2010
Reproducing Photographs: Recent Discussions

Charging Fees:
- Commercial use
- Scanning

Copyright for Digital Collections

Patrons Allowed To Use
- Scanners?
- Digital cameras?
Photos, documents, maps, and other resources from Special Collections documenting the history, culture, and people of Idaho and the American West. Check back often for new collections.

Historic Boise State
Growing collection of photographs that reflect the history of Boise State, from its beginning as Boise Junior College in 1932 to the present. Includes images of campus life, student activities, buildings, and athletics.

Bethine Church Collection
Photos depicting the public and personal life of Bethine Church, wife of the late Senator Frank Church.
Publishing Images: Copyright Issues

Photographs by Henry R. Griffiths, Jr.

Erin Pascaleh, “Should I Copy That Photograph?” 2010 Western Round-Up
Reproducing Culturally Sensitive Photographs: Claude Dallas

Erin Passehl, “Should I Copy That Photograph?” 2010 Western Round-Up
Reproducing Culturally Sensitive Photographs: Hobo March

Examples of photographs included in the digital collection

Erin Passehl, “Should I Copy That Photograph?” 2010 Western Round-Up
Reproducing Culturally Sensitive Photographs: Hobo March

Examples of photographs NOT currently included in the digital collection

Erin Passehl, “Should I Copy That Photograph?” 2010 Western Round-Up
Examples of photographs included in the digital collection

Erin Passehl, “Should I Copy That Photograph?” 2010 Western Round-Up
Reproducing Culturally Sensitive Photographs: Raft Race

Examples of photographs NOT included in the digital collection

Erin Passehl, “Should I Copy That Photograph?” 2010 Western Round-Up
Reproducing Photographs: Political Pressures

“Shake Your Booty”
vs.
“Disco Dance”

Public Figures, Family Influence

Erin Passehl, “Should I Copy That Photograph?” 2010 Western Round-Up
Thank you!

Erin Passehl
Librarian/Archivist
Boise State University
erinpassehl@boisestate.edu