Holding Iran accountable?

Thursday, January 1, 2009

While protesters demonstrate against the Israeli incursion into Gaza, who will take issue with the repeated provocation by Iran in Gaza, the West Bank and throughout the region?

The increased proficiency of Hamas rocketeers is most likely a result of Iranian aid. Hamas leaders themselves have acknowledged that they have been sending their elite fighters to be trained by the Iranian Revolutionary Guard.

Iran orchestrated what amounts to a coup in Lebanon in 2008 and has set the stage for a complete Hezbollah takeover of the government there when parliamentary election roll around in the spring.

From Israel and the Levant, through Iraq and on to Afghanistan and Pakistan, Iran's malign influence is placing the entire region, indeed the entire world, at risk. When will Iran be held accountable?
