
Gerald Lebovits

Available at: https://works.bepress.com/gerald_lebovits/147/
The authors thank the following for their research help: Appellate Term, Second Department, Deputy Chief Court Attorney Victor Faleck, Esq.; Housing Court Attorney Alexandra Standish, Esq.; Mary Ann Amodeo, Esq.; Fordham University School of Law student Alana Wrublin; and, especially, New York Law School student Stephanie L. Torre for her generous and excellent research.
New York State Bar Association Continuing Legal Education publications are intended to provide current and accurate information to help attorneys maintain their professional competence. Publications are distributed with the understanding that NYSBA does not render any legal, accounting or other professional service. Attorneys using publications or orally conveyed information in dealing with a specific client’s or their own legal matters should also research original sources of authority.

We consider the publication of any NYSBA practice book as the beginning of a dialogue with our readers. Periodic updates to this book will give us the opportunity to incorporate your suggestions regarding additions or corrections. Please send your comments to: CLE Publications Director, New York State Bar Association, One Elk Street, Albany, NY 12207.
CONTENTS

I. Introduction ................................................................................................................. 1

II. The Tenancy .............................................................................................................. 1
  A. Market Rentals ....................................................................................................... 4
     1. The Parties ....................................................................................................... 4
     2. The Premises .................................................................................................. 5
     3. Rent ............................................................................................................... 6
     4. Default .......................................................................................................... 6
  B. Rent Regulation ..................................................................................................... 7
     1. Rent-Controlled Premises ............................................................................. 8
     2. Rent-Stabilized Premises ........................................................................... 10
     3. Rent-Overcharge Claims ............................................................................ 11
  C. Public Housing .................................................................................................... 12
  D. Section 8 (Tenant and Project-Based) Housing ................................................. 14
     1. The Voucher Program ............................................................................... 14
     2. Project-Based Section 8 ............................................................................. 17
  E. Cooperatives and Condominiums ...................................................................... 17
     1. Housing Development Fund Companies ............................................... 19
     2. Limited Profit Housing Companies (Mitchell-Lama Housing) ............... 19
  F. Lofts .................................................................................................................... 20
  G. Single-Room Occupancies (SROs) .................................................................... 21

III. Tenancy Protections ............................................................................................... 21
  A. Housing Discrimination .................................................................................... 21
  B. Warranty of Habitability .................................................................................. 23

IV. Conveying the Tenancy ......................................................................................... 25

V. Types of Proceedings ............................................................................................. 27
  A. Summary Proceedings ...................................................................................... 27
     1. Introduction ................................................................................................... 27
     2. The Structure of Modern Summary Proceedings ....................................... 29
     3. Types of Summary Proceedings .................................................................. 30
        a. Holdover Proceedings ........................................................................... 30
           (1) Chronic Late Payment of Rent ........................................................... 31
           (2) Pets ..................................................................................................... 32
           (3) Alterations .......................................................................................... 32
           (4) Access ................................................................................................ 33
           (5) Illegal Use .......................................................................................... 33
           (6) Nuisance ............................................................................................. 34
           (7) Hoarding ............................................................................................. 35
           (8) Nonprimary Residence ..................................................................... 35
           (9) Owner’s Use ....................................................................................... 36
           (10) Licensee Proceedings ....................................................................... 36
           (11) Spouses ............................................................................................... 38
           (12) Employer-Employee Proceedings ............................................... 38
           (13) Sublets ............................................................................................... 38
           (14) Illusory Tenancy .............................................................................. 39
DAN M. BLUMENTHAL, ESQ.

Dan M. Blumenthal is a partner in the Mineola, New York law firm of Ezratty, Ezratty & Levine, L.P., concentrating his practice on landlord-tenant and foreclosure litigation and related appeals. Mr. Blumenthal has appeared before state and federal courts including the Appellate Terms, Appellate Divisions (First and Second Departments), the Federal District Courts for New York and the Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit. He is a member of the New York State Bar Association (Real Property Section) committee on landlord-tenant practice and the Nassau County Bar Association (District Court committee, Co-Chairman). Mr. Blumenthal regularly appears as a volunteer and is the program coordinator for the Nassau County Bar Association volunteer mediator program in the Nassau County District Court Landlord-Tenant Part. He represents landlords and tenants of all sizes, including income-based public and privatized housing complexes and both private and federally owned foreclosure properties. Mr. Blumenthal, a frequent lecturer on landlord-tenant issues including eviction after foreclosure and ethics in landlord-tenant practice, received his J.D. from the Benjamin N. Cardozo School of Law.

DAMON P. HOWARD, ESQ.

Damon P. Howard is a graduate of the University of Texas at Austin and received his law degree from Tulane University in 2005. While in law school, Mr. Howard interned for the U.S. Attorney’s Office, Criminal Division, and is admitted to the bars of both Louisiana and New York. Mr. Howard is currently an associate with Finkelstein Newman Ferrara LLP.

HONORABLE GERALD LEBOVITS

Gerald Lebovits is a judge of the New York City Civil Court, Housing Part, and an adjunct professor at St. John’s University School of Law, where he won the Teaching Award for 2007–2008. For 18 years he was an adjunct professor at New York Law School, where he earned Adjunct Professor of the Year honors. A faculty member of the New York State Judicial Institute teaching judges and court attorneys, he co-chairs the New York State Bar Association’s Committee on Landlord-Tenant Proceedings and, since 2001, has authored the New York State Bar Association Journal’s Legal Writer column. He graduated from the Ottawa, Tulane and New York University law schools.