Georgia Southern University

From the SelectedWorks of Gregory J. Brock

May 6, 2016

Golden Dome Carry

Gregory J. Brock, Georgia Southern University

Available at: https://works.bepress.com/gregory_brock/155/
Prayer of the Day

"Lord, when my voice is heard by none other, you always hear and ignore the large number of on campus carry? Why can't law-abiding legislators carry when they vote? How can we be as protected as they are, even if they are not the 2nd Amendment right that is being ignored? And the reinter- pretation of the 2nd Amendment for the past 30 years to some- thing those who wrote it never intended.

No one that considers the reinter- pretation of the 2nd Amendment for the past 30 years to some- thing those who wrote it never intended.

No one that considers the reinter- pretation of the 2nd Amendment for the past 30 years to some- thing those who wrote it never intended.

No one that considers the reinter- pretation of the 2nd Amendment for the past 30 years to something those who wrote it never intended.

No one that considers the reinter- pretation of the 2nd Amendment for the past 30 years to something those who wrote it never intended.

No one that considers the reinter- pretation of the 2nd Amendment for the past 30 years to something those who wrote it never intended.

No one that considers the reinter- pretation of the 2nd Amendment for the past 30 years to something those who wrote it never intended.

No one that considers the reinter- pretation of the 2nd Amendment for the past 30 years to something those who wrote it never intended.

No one that considers the reinter- pretation of the 2nd Amendment for the past 30 years to something those who wrote it never intended.

No one that considers the reinter- pretation of the 2nd Amendment for the past 30 years to something those who wrote it never intended.

No one that considers the reinter- pretation of the 2nd Amendment for the past 30 years to something those who wrote it never intended.

No one that considers the reinter- pretation of the 2nd Amendment for the past 30 years to something those who wrote it never intended.

No one that considers the reinter- pretation of the 2nd Amendment for the past 30 years to something those who wrote it never intended.

No one that considers the reinter- pretation of the 2nd Amendment for the past 30 years to something those who wrote it never intended.

No one that considers the reinter- pretation of the 2nd Amendment for the past 30 years to something those who wrote it never intended.

No one that considers the reinter- pretation of the 2nd Amendment for the past 30 years to something those who wrote it never intended.

No one that considers the reinter- pretation of the 2nd Amendment for the past 30 years to something those who wrote it never intended.

No one that considers the reinter- pretation of the 2nd Amendment for the past 30 years to something those who wrote it never intended.

No one that considers the reinter- pretation of the 2nd Amendment for the past 30 years to something those who wrote it never intended.

No one that considers the reinter- pretation of the 2nd Amendment for the past 30 years to something those who wrote it never intended.

No one that considers the reinter- pretation of the 2nd Amendment for the past 30 years to something those who wrote it never intended.

No one that considers the reinter- pretation of the 2nd Amendment for the past 30 years to something those who wrote it never intended.

No one that considers the reinter- pretation of the 2nd Amendment for the past 30 years to something those who wrote it never intended.

No one that considers the reinter- pretation of the 2nd Amendment for the past 30 years to something those who wrote it never intended.

No one that considers the reinter- pretation of the 2nd Amendment for the past 30 years to something those who wrote it never intended.

No one that considers the reinter- pretation of the 2nd Amendment for the past 30 years to something those who wrote it never intended.

No one that considers the reinter- pretation of the 2nd Amendment for the past 30 years to something those who wrote it never intended.

No one that considers the reinter- pretation of the 2nd Amendment for the past 30 years to something those who wrote it never intended.

No one that considers the reinter- pretation of the 2nd Amendment for the past 30 years to something those who wrote it never intended.

No one that considers the reinter- pretation of the 2nd Amendment for the past 30 years to something those who wrote it never intended.

No one that considers the reinter- pretation of the 2nd Amendment for the past 30 years to something those who wrote it never intended.

No one that considers the reinter- pretation of the 2nd Amendment for the past 30 years to something those who wrote it never intended.

No one that considers the reinter- pretation of the 2nd Amendment for the past 30 years to something those who wrote it never intended.

No one that considers the reinter- pretation of the 2nd Amendment for the past 30 years to something those who wrote it never intended.

No one that considers the reinter- pretation of the 2nd Amendment for the past 30 years to something those who wrote it never intended.

No one that considers the reinter- pretation of the 2nd Amendment for the past 30 years to something those who wrote it never intended.

No one that considers the reinter- pretation of the 2nd Amendment for the past 30 years to something those who wrote it never intended.

No one that considers the reinter- pretation of the 2nd Amendment for the past 30 years to something those who wrote it never intended.

No one that considers the reinter- pretation of the 2nd Amendment for the past 30 years to something those who wrote it never intended.

No one that considers the reinter- pretation of the 2nd Amendment for the past 30 years to something those who wrote it never intended.

No one that considers the reinter- pretation of the 2nd Amendment for the past 30 years to something those who wrote it never intended.

No one that considers the reinter- pretation of the 2nd Amendment for the past 30 years to something those who wrote it never intended.

No one that considers the reinter- pretation of the 2nd Amendment for the past 30 years to something those who wrote it never intended.

No one that considers the reinter- pretation of the 2nd Amendment for the past 30 years to something those who wrote it never intended.

No one that considers the reinter- pretation of the 2nd Amendment for the past 30 years to something those who wrote it never intended.

No one that considers the reinter- pretation of the 2nd Amendment for the past 30 years to something those who wrote it never intended.

No one that considers the reinter- pretation of the 2nd Amendment for the past 30 years to something those who wrote it never intended.

No one that considers the reinter- pretation of the 2nd Amendment for the past 30 years to something those who wrote it never intended.

No one that considers the reinter- pretation of the 2nd Amendment for the past 30 years to something those who wrote it never intended.

No one that considers the reinter- pretation of the 2nd Amendment for the past 30 years to something those who wrote it never intended.

No one that considers the reinter- pretation of the 2nd Amendment for the past 30 years to something those who wrote it never intended.

No one that considers the reinter- pretation of the 2nd Amendment for the past 30 years to something those who wrote it never intended.

No one that considers the reinter- pretation of the 2nd Amendment for the past 30 years to something those who wrote it never intended.

No one that considers the reinter- pretation of the 2nd Amendment for the past 30 years to something those who wrote it never intended.

No one that considers the reinter- pretation of the 2nd Amendment for the past 30 years to something those who wrote it never intended.

No one that considers the reinter- pretation of the 2nd Amendment for the past 30 years to something those who wrote it never intended.

No one that considers the reinter- pretation of the 2nd Amendment for the past 30 years to something those who wrote it never intended.

No one that considers the reinter- pretation of the 2nd Amendment for the past 30 years to something those who wrote it never intended.

No one that considers the reinter- pretation of the 2nd Amendment for the past 30 years to something those who wrote it never intended.

No one that considers the reint-