Profit Maximization and Economic Accountability or Why Lithuania Should Look Both East and West

Gregory J Brock, Georgia Southern University

Available at: https://works.bepress.com/gregory_brock/79/
ON THE MEETING OF THE PEACE CONGRESS

Lithuanian and Soviet Union

The Lithuanian Review is published in Vilnius, Lithuania, by

Lithuanian and Russian Review

Subscription Rates:

US$ 10.00

Lithuanian and Soviet Union

The official organ of the Lithuanian and Soviet Union

The editorial board of the Lithuanian Review is composed of the following members:

Prof. Dr. Vygantas Pabedinskas
Prof. Dr. Antanas Grida
Prof. Dr. Algirdas Vaičiulis

Lithuanian Review, October 4, 1990

WHAT IS THE MEETING OF THE PEACE CONGRESS?

The meeting of the Peace Congress was held in Vilnius, Lithuania, on September 28, 1990.

The aim of the meeting was to discuss the current situation in the world and to propose solutions for international problems.

The following topics were discussed:

1. The situation in the Middle East
2. The situation in the former Yugoslavia
3. The situation in Eastern Europe
4. The situation in the former Soviet Union

The congress was attended by representatives from various countries and organizations.

The congress adopted a declaration, which called for peace and cooperation among nations.

The declaration stated:

'Peace is not just the absence of war, but the presence of hope. We must work together to create a world of peace and prosperity."

The congress ended with a call for action to achieve these goals.

The Lithuanian Review, October 4, 1990

ECONOMIC ACCOUNTABILITY AND ECONOMIC MAXIMIZATION

Looking Back East and West

Economic Accountability and Economic Maximization

By: [Name of Author]

The Lithuanian Review, October 4, 1990

THE LITHUANIAN REVIEW

October 4, 1990

Corporate

Address:

The Lithuanian Review

Vilnius, Lithuania

Telephone: [Tel. No.]

Fax: [Fax No.]

E-mail: [E-mail Address]

Website: [Website Address]