University of Oregon Ford Alumni Center

When the visionary leadership of the University of Oregon's Alumni Association conceived of their new Center, a new paradigm was born. While most university alumni centers are heritage repositories celebrating the past, the Ford Alumni Center equally cultivates the future. As the new front door to the university, this dynamic building welcomes all visitors and immerses them in the pioneering spirit that defines the University of Oregon, providing equal parts inspiration and information.

As the launching point for campus tours, thousands of prospective students will get their first impression of the Interpretive Center—a 2,000-square-foot space that and invigorates appreciation for the
