The Ohio State University

From the SelectedWorks of Jaclyn J. Gishbaugher

Summer June, 2013

English for Uniformed Forces International Conference 2013 (conference co-organizer)

Jaclyn J. Gishbaugher, The Ohio State University

Available at: https://works.bepress.com/jaclyn_gishbaugher/5/
The 1st ELT International Conference - English for Uniformed Forces aims to explore English language teaching for uniformed forces in Indonesia, East Asia and all around the world. This conference will explore the design, development and delivery of English language materials for uniformed forces. This serves at domestic and international level, as English is seen as universal language of mission and security in military and police action.
SISILIA SETIAWATI HALIMI
Senior Lecturer in the English Study Program and the Post-graduate Linguistic Department, Fakultas Ilmu Pengetahuan Budaya (FIB), Universitas Indonesia (UI). She earned her B.A. in linguistics from the University of Indonesia (UI), her M.A. in ELT from the University of Warwick, UK, and her Ph.D. in ELT from La Trobe University, Australia. She has developed and promoted diverse professional development opportunities for teachers of English in Indonesia and has worked with teachers in Vietnam and Singapore by facilitating teacher training workshops on various ELT topics. She has been an active member and Vice President of the Association of Teachers of English as a Foreign Language in Indonesia (TEFLIN) and can be best reached via email at sshalimi@hotmail.com.

CHARLES HALL
Associate Professor of Applied Linguistics at the University of Memphis and former Chair of International TESOL ESP Interest Session. He has led training workshops sponsored by various organizations, such as the U.S. Department of State and the United Nations, in over 30 countries including Iraq and Sudan. He is author or co-author of several texts, such as American Legal English (University of Michigan Press). He has been awarded two senior Fulbrights for the Czech Republic, where he has also directed a TEF training course each summer at the University of West Bohemia since 1990.

PEGGY GARZA
Chair of English Language Programs Department
Ms. Peggy Garza (MA, MBA) is the Chair of the Department of English Language Programs at the George C. Marshall European Center for Security Studies, Partner Language Training Center Europe in Garmisch, Germany, where she is responsible for overseeing ESP programs as well as professional development courses for teachers and testers of English. Prior to her current assignment, she worked at the Defense Language Institute English Language Center (DLIELC) located in Texas, USA, in various teaching, testing, and supervisory positions. She is the former Secretary for NATO’s Bureau for International Language Co-ordination (BILC) and now serves as the Associate BILC Secretary for Testing Programs. Ms. Garza has given numerous presentations at international conferences on the topics of testing, curriculum development, e-learning, and teacher training.

ESTHER HAY
Former BC Global Peace and Security English Project Manager
Esther Hay (BA, MA) is currently the Resourcing Project Manager at the British Council, Manchester, reviewing the reporting needs and professional development for English & Exams in the global network. She is the former Global Peacekeeping English Manager and Peacekeeping English Project Manager in Romania and Albania/Macedonia and has provided consultancy services on English for peacekeeping. She has also co-ordinated training programmes for military and police in Bahrain and Slovakia. She has extensive experience in teaching, teacher training, testing, materials design, self-access learning, and organising workshops and events. She has worked in Africa, Europe, and the Middle East and produced self-study materials on human rights issues with CARE International.

ILEANA CHERSAN
Author Campaign: English for Law Enforcement
Ileana Chersan is currently a Lecturer and Teacher Trainer at the Police Academy in Bucharest, where she has taught Police English, Legal English and English for History and Archives for the past 15 years. She holds a PhD in Linguistics awarded by the University of Bucharest; the doctoral thesis was called A social history of the English police vocabulary. Ileana Chersan also co-authored English for Law Enforcement, an internationally available coursebook for police officers (Macmillan, 2009) and other similar books. She was a direct beneficiary of British Council Peacekeeping English Project in Romania during 2000-2007.
INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE PARTICIPANTS

United Kingdom
British Council – Former Global Peacekeeping English Manager
University of Westminster

Germany
Chair of the English/German language Department and Marshall Centre: European Centre for Security Studies
University of Potsdam

Romania
Police Academy in Bucharest.
Author English for Law Enforcement

Afghanistan
British Council

Bangladesh
Government Hazi Mohammad Mohsin college

Hong Kong
Clarity Language Consultants Ltd.

South Korea
Korean Military Academy

Thailand
Royal Thai Police British Council

Russia
Head of Foreign Languages Department, Russian Customs Academy

Vietnam
Vietnam National People’s Police Academy Vietnam Customs School

United States
US Department of State English Language Specialist
US Department of State English Language Fellow Program
International Criminal Investigative Training Assistance Program

Canada
Canadian Defence School

Peru
Author Police Horizons
Author English for Tourism Police

Guam
Defence Language Institute English Language Centre

AFRICA

Ethiopia
Ethiopian Ministry of National Defence

South Sudan
Sudan’s People Liberation Army

Indonesian National Defence Forces Peace and Security Centre
PMPP TNI
UK Defence Attaché, British Embassy Indonesia
Vice President of TEFLIN
University of Indonesia
Defence Language Training and Education Centre
Directorate General of Defence Strategy
Directorate of International Cooperation
Police Language Training Centre

AUSTRALIA

Australian Defence International Training Centre

BRITISH COUNCIL

MINISTRY OF DEFENCE