Theology, Politics, and Exegesis: Essays on the History of Modern Biblical Criticism

Jeffrey Morrow, Seton Hall University

Available at: https://works.bepress.com/jeffrey-morrow/5/
THEOLOGY, POLITICS, AND EXEGESIS
This book is dedicated to Scott W. Hahn, William L. Portier, Edwin M. Yamauchi, and James C. Hanges, in thanksgiving for their friendship and mentorship over the years, especially while I was a student.
CONTENTS

Acknowledgments  |  ix
Introduction   |  xiii

1  An Overview of the History of Biblical Criticism
   Prior to the Enlightenment  |  1
2  The Psalter and Seventeenth Century Politics:
   Spinoza’s Theological-Political Treatise  |  16
3  Faith, Reason, and Biblical Interpretation:
   The Cases of Fr. Richard Simon and St. Thomas More  |  35
4  Biblical Studies at the Enlightenment University  |  52
5  A Parting of the Ways: Biblical Studies and Moral Theology  |  74
   Conclusion  |  91

Bibliography  |  93