Curriculum Vita

Name: Jenny Naidu

Recently retired from Akron Public Schools as Elementary School Principal (Jan 2012)

Seeking a position as Adjunct Instructor in Education, teaching courses and supervising student teachers in the field.

Academic Degrees
Ph.D   Kent State University, 1990 Curriculum and Instruction /Special Ed.
Masters Ed   University of Akron, 1988 Special Education
B.Ed   UNISA University of South Africa Pretoria 1985 Education
B.A   UNISA University of South Africa 1983
Teachers Diploma Springfield College of Education Durban 1969

Professional Experiences
1992-201   Principal Akron Public Schools
1990   Instructor Kent State University TRIVET Program (Techniques of Responsive Interventions to Validate Effective Teaching)
1987-1988   Education Director Head Start Akron Public Schools and Federal Peer Reviewer/ Consultant with Ohio State
Part Time Adjunct Experiences
Kent State
Co instructed ATEP with Dean (Alternate Teacher Education Program)
Instructed Courses Early Childhood Education
Taught Success with at risk Students Grad Level Course
As Graduate Assistant worked on Reading Journal with Dr Vacca
Akron University
SUPERVISION OF STUDENT TEACHERS 1999 to 2016 Fall and Spring
Instructed Special.Ed Courses Developmental Characteristics of Exceptional Children
Teaching And Learning Strategies   5100-211-080
Diversity in Learners   550-320-080
Observing and Recording Childrens Behavior   2200-250-801
Characteristics of Learners   5100-210-080
Curriculum and Instruction   5500-592-935/934
Speaker Series Managing Student Behavior and Classroom Management
Instructed Special Education Colloquium and Practicum 5610 470-801
Programming Early Childhood Sped
Malone University Instructed Critical Issues in Education and School Law Graduate level
As principal I was responsible for teacher observations and evaluations, action research studies, grant writing , curriculum and instruction and overall school safety.
Contact Information : Cell 330-208-6944 Home 330- 666-7140 email jnaidu@uakron.edu