1. Today we've met together to greet you while we may And
2. It matters not how haughty or lowly we may be Our
3. And should we rise to fame or falter as we stand We'll show our love and honor on this our Mothers Day. There hearts are ever mellowed by Mothers memory. We find no dearer friend whod better understand. And is no one more willing to help us thru the years. There think of scenes in childhood when Mother helped us know The so we give you honor and pray our lives will show That is no name more noble than that of Mother dear.

path of life to follow, the way that we must go.
we can ever follow the way you'd have us go.
