

LeAnn Jeanette Mayer, RN, MSN, PCCN

---

Education

Indiana University Purdue University, Graduate School	Anticipated May 2020
Transformational Leadership	Doctrine of Nursing Practice
Ball State University, Graduate School	June 2008 – December 2010
Nursing with Leadership Track Plan of Study (educator)	Masters of Science
<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ 226 hour leadership practicum at Ivy Tech, Ft. Wayne Indiana that included assisting in lecturing and writing lesson plans for Medical-Surgical Nursing I. Evaluating and instructing students in a clinical experience at an extended care facility for Medical-Surgical Nursing I clinical.</li></ul>
Ball State University, School of Nursing	August 1991-December 1995
Nursing	Bachelors of Science

Experience

Indiana University Purdue University, Ft. Wayne, Indiana	August 2012 – Current
<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>▪ Clinical Instructor - Community/Public Health Nursing (NUR 418) Responsibilities include doing mid-term and final clinical evaluations. Observe and grade teaching projects in the community setting. Observe and evaluate students during their clinical in various areas throughout the community such as schools, clinics, home health, and factories. Help with the students at the Community Harvest Food Bank each semester.</li><li>▪ Teaching Assistant - Community/Public Health Nursing, January 2014–May 2015 Consists of helping grade online assignments for Professor Jordan Assisted Professor Jordan to Lac du Flambeau Indian Reservation, October, 2014 and 2015</li></ul>

- Clinical Instructor and Didactic -Fundamentals of Nursing (NUR 115)
August 2015 – Current

Responsibilities include doing weekly, mid-term and final clinical evaluations. Demonstrate and explain basic nursing care skills for first semester nursing students. Observe and assist students in the care of patients at a rehabilitation hospital. Grading nursing care assessment papers. Teach nursing fundamentals in lecture. Co-teaching with Professor Dannhausen

- Instructor of Professional Seminar I of Nursing (NUR103) August 2015- Current
Teach nursing relationships and communication skills to first semester nursing students. Learn about APA referencing.

Ivy Tech, Northeast Campus, Ft. Wayne, Indiana

January 2011- May 2013

- Clinical Instructor for Med-Surg, II nursing students in hospital settings for Lutheran Health Network.

Clinical consisted of one day a week of 10 hours of clinical time and a 2 hour post conference. Responsibilities included doing mid-term and final clinical evaluations; grading care plans, concept maps, teaching projects, and data sheets; help guide students in a clinical setting with medication passes, dressing changes, patient care, and charting.

Post conferences consisted of grading teaching projects presented in the clinical group, talk about what was learned or observed during clinical time, and lead simulation lab scenarios. In addition, teach topics relevant to clinical, i.e. do case studies, watch videos or play an interactive game related to a nursing subject.

- Clinical Instructor for Med-Surg, III nursing students in a hospital setting at Lutheran Health Network.

Clinical consisted of one day a week of 10 hours of clinical time and a 2 hour post conference. Responsibilities included doing mid-term and final clinical evaluations; grading care plans, interrelated papers, and data sheets; help guide students in a clinical setting with medication passes, dressing changes, patient care, delegation, and charting.

Post conferences consisted of discussing what was learned or observed during clinical time, simulation labs, guest speakers, and math problems for drug concentrations and drip rates.

Lutheran Hospital, Ft. Wayne, Indiana

September 2000 – July 2015

- Charge nurse and floor nurse on a cardiac telemetry unit.
- Manage care from young adults to geriatrics with wide variety of diagnoses such as heart disease, diabetes, congested heart failure, chest pain, renal failure, and stroke.
- Develop patient care plans, including assessments, evaluations, and nursing diagnoses.
- Instruct patients and family members on discharge care.
- Serve on various unit committees such as service excellence, education, peer interview, and social committee.
- Serve on Medical Surgical Education Counsel and Nursing Leadership Group as hospital wide committees.
- Organize new employees by scheduling classes, arranging schedules, selecting preceptors, and providing guidance during the orientation process.
- Do the unit schedule for all nurses in 6 week increments.

Memorial Hospital, Jasper, Indiana

January 1996 – August 2000

- Circulating nurse in a 6-bed surgical department
- Prepared patients for surgery pre-operatively by reviewing procedure, starting intravenous lines, staying with patient during induction of anesthesia.
- Responsible for set up of operation suite that included proper equipment, correct instruments, maintain sterile field, temperature of room, prepping surgical site, and patient safety during surgery.
- Assisted patients in the recovery room that included assessment of vital signs, pain, and level of consciousness post-op.
- Rotated taking call at night and on weekends as scheduled for emergency surgeries and cesarean sections.

Posters

Domestic Intercultural Immersion at Lac du Flambeau

November 2015

Community Service

Big Blue Event

April 2013

Healthy Cities – Matthew 25, Fort Wayne, Indiana

October 2013, 2015

Certifications

- Indiana Registered Nurse – Active
- Progressive Care Certified Nurse
- CPR Instructor for healthcare provider
- Advanced Cardiac Life Support
- Basic Life Support for healthcare provider

Community Involvement and Organizations

- American Association of Critical-Care Nursing member
- American Nurses Association member
- Student Affairs and Undergraduate Admissions Committee
- CDNP Handbook Committee