EFFL 5|2014 Unfair Practices in the Food Supply Chain 293 Unfair Practices in the Food Supply Chain A Cause for Concern in the European Union’s Internal Market which Requires an Effective Harmonising Solution Luis González Vaqué* « Tout a déjà été dit, mais comme personne n'écoute, il faut sans cesse recommencer » André Gide I.

Introduction The limited scope of Directive 2005/29/EC concerning unfair business-to-consumer commercial practices leaves unfair trading practices (UTPs) between businesses unregulated by the Community. UTPs are especially harmful, including to consumers, when occurring along the food supply chain.
