Wood County, Ohio: Project [Homeless] Connect

INTRODUCTION

Homelessness is a complex and dynamic issue, which is affected by social factors like addiction, mental illness, and familial causes as well as structural factors like poor economic conditions, absence of employment opportunities, inadequate low cost housing, and deficient mental health services (Mago, Morden, & Fritz, et. al., 2013). To combat this dynamic and complex issue of homelessness, the response also needs to be dynamic and complex. The services need to target both social and structural factors and services need to be tailored to individual needs.

Project Homeless Connect (PHC) is designed to provide immediate goods and services to homeless individuals and those nearing homelessness. PHC provides basic needs and critical services in one day at one location. Along with providing valuable and necessary services to help alleviate homelessness, an additional positive outcome for service providers is the opportunity to network with different agency members, and reinforce relationships, collaborations, and partnerships. It originated in San Francisco and was later adopted and revised by the U.S. Interagency Council on Homelessness (USICH) to decrease homelessness in major American cities (Knetch & Martinez, 2009). PHC was created following the premises of the former President George W. Bush Administration's policy of compassionate conservatism and the "armies of compassion" model, which "sought to rebuild public-private relationships to address social problems and avoid increasing government spending" (Knetch & Martinez, 2009, p. 522). More than 170 cities in the United States, Canada, and Australia have adopted the PHC project.

On October 14, 2015, Wood County, Ohio held its third Project Connect (PC) event at St. Mark's Lutheran Church in Bowling Green, Ohio. Co-Chairs for PC 2015 were: Jamie Brubaker of United Way of Wood County, Jane Rosser of Bowling Green State University, and Don Neifer of St. Mark's Lutheran Church. Planning for PC began in April of 2015. County Commissioner Doris Herringshaw served as Honorary Chair. Twelve sub-committees, two were added after PC 2014 and these are marked by *, comprised the Steering Committee covering the following areas:

1. Logistics, chaired by Don Neifer and co-chair Erin Hachtel
2. Publicity, chaired by Tricia Peters and co-chair Esther Nagel
3. Volunteers, chaired by Katie Stygles
4. Intake/Social Workers, chaired by Shannon Fisher and co-chair Willa Thomas
5. Transportation, chaired by Sandy Milligan
6. Administration, chaired by Dr. Melissa W. Burek and co-chair Dr. Mamta Ojha
7. Health and Wellness, chaired by Judy Kellermeier and co-chair Rhonda Stoner
8. Housing/Education/Social Service Providers, chaired by Kathy Mull
9. Hot Meal, co-chaired by Cindy Tyrrell
10. Personal Care and Tangible Goods, chaired by Deanna Lamb and co-chairs Robert Grogan and Jo Tutolo
11. Hair Care*, chaired by Lori Fox
12. Child Care*, chaired by Erika Sleet

GOALS

There were six primary goals for the second annual event:

1. Serve 200-300 individuals and families who are in need of supportive services
2. Gain additional quantifiable data for people at risk or experiencing homelessness by following the steps below:
 - a. Identify needs and gaps in services
 - b. Develop new ways to meet these needs
 - c. Track success of 2015 guests
3. Host 50 services providers offering the following services: Hot meal, clothing, haircuts, food, medical care, dental care, substance abuse and mental health services, IDs, housing, legal information, employment assistance, and information to increase access to basic services
4. Recruit 350 volunteers with a focus on hosts and hot meal delivery
5. Increase provider membership and program coordination for the Continuum of Care Wood County
6. Increase community awareness of challenges in our community regarding the risk of homelessness and the services available to those in need

Each of the above-noted goals was fulfilled or exceeded expectations, respectively with the exception of goal number 4. To illustrate:

1. 311 adults and children attended the event with 30% having attended last year's PC
2. Data were gathered through intake forms at the event on 312 households. In addition, 267 guests completed all data collection forms designed for the event (i.e., intake, welcome sheet, and exit surveys). Guests were asked to provide their contact information if they consented to be contacted for focus groups and follow up activities.
3. 55 providers were present with 10 being first time at event providers
4. 245 individuals served as volunteers during the planning stages and on the day of the event. The recruitment fell short by 105 volunteers.
5. The successful execution of the third PC event in Wood County on October 14, 2015, like the two previous events, was contingent upon having numerous providers in one location. This was accomplished, thereby further expanding the reach and awareness of the mission of the Continuum of Care of Woody County Additional evidence in support of this goal involved all parties to the event:
 - a. 87% of guests reported they were very satisfied with the services or programs available at PC 2015.
 - b. 85% of volunteers gained knowledge of where to turn to for help should they or something they know become at risk for homelessness and 100% would volunteer again for PC.
 - c. Approximately 90% of providers strongly agreed/agreed that the event increased provider membership and program coordination for Continuum of Care Wood County
6. Met by 5 a-c above and the following evidence:

- a. 89% of guests reported getting more than expected or as they expected at PC.
- b. 92% of volunteers reported a change in perspective on essential services that may be lacking for the disadvantaged or at risk of experiencing homelessness
- c. 96% of the providers report they would participate in an event like PC in the future.

PC PROCESS: DAY OF EVENT

As occurred in 2014, guests entered the main door of St. Mark's Lutheran Church where the PC event was held. They were paired with a PC Host Volunteer who handed the guests a "Welcome Packet" that included information on what to expect at the event and a form where guests could indicate which services they would like to connect while at PC. This latter form is what the guests were instructed to complete while waiting for intake. At intake, guests met with a PC Intake Volunteer for about 10-15 minutes to complete a needs assessment and screening form. The purpose of the intake form was to help PC representatives understand guests' immediate needs so they could focus on these as they went through PC. Intake Volunteers were instructed to identify priority services, but guests could visit any provider they wished. New to PC 2014 and then repeated in 2015, Intake Volunteers highlighted these priority areas on a "Services At-A-Glance" sheet that listed the providers available under specific headings that best described the providers' services offered that day.

At any time over the course of the event, guests could eat a hot meal. After the guests connected to the providers and services, guests could visit the tangible good areas of the church and pick up clothes vouchers, personal care items, and a tote bag of groceries.

REPORT METHODOLOGY

In 2013, Bowling Green State University researchers, Melissa W. Burek, Adam Watkins, and Mamta Ojha, hereinafter BGSU Research Team, developed two data collection instruments (see Appendix) to gather information on guest demographics, living situations, income sources, guest needs, and requests for services to connect with while in attendance at PHC. These forms were utilized again this year in order to capture reliable comparisons between the two years. These two forms were (1) Request for Services and Appointment form, also called the "Welcome form," which was slightly modified based on results from 2013 and 2014 reports. This form was completed by guests while they were waiting to enter the intake area with the assistance of their Host Volunteers and (2) Needs Assessment and Screening Intake form, which was completed by an Intake Volunteer with individual guests. Responses collected from three other survey instruments that had been used at other PHCs to gather feedback on the event from guests, volunteers, and providers were also analyzed (see Appendix). The Services At-A-Glance form was new in 2014 and was developed based on recommendations that came out of last year's written report and verbal communication with the 2013 Project Homeless Connect Steering Committee. The purpose of this form was to help the Host Volunteers better match guests with the three priority services and locating other services that were of interest to their guests.

As was done in previous years, in order to ensure the data collected from guests could be matched from entry to exit, each PC guest was given a set of unique identification labels with a PC guest number that were placed on the above-noted guest instruments. To confidentially track the characteristics of guests connecting with specific agencies and services, guests were directed to place a label on designated sheets as they visited providers. After the event, all completed data collection instruments were given to the BGSU Research Team for data entry and analyses. Results for 2015 are reported on PC as a collective whole and then for each provider that had at least one guest connection. It is important to note that not all respondents attending PC completed all three forms and if guests did not go through intake, they likely did not have the identification labels in hand to give to providers.

At the end of the event, we collected responses from 312 guest intake forms (including pre-registered guests who came through PC). Last year, 221 intake forms were completed. Complete packets (i.e., Intake, Welcome Forms, Services At-A-Glance, and Exit Survey) were available for analysis on 267 guests whereas in 2014, there were 163. There were 175, up 51 over PC 2014, Volunteer Exit and 55 Provider Exit forms completed in 2015. This report presents findings based on the most complete data we were able to collate across the various instruments disseminated at the PC event. Results are reported according to group membership of guests, volunteers, and providers.

RESULTS: GUESTS

Findings from Request for Services and Appointment Form

As stated in the previous section, three primary data collection instruments were administered to guests over the course of the event. The first survey was a Request for Services and Appointment Form (RSAF), also known as the Welcome Form (see Appendix). Guests were asked to indicate with an "X" if they wanted to connect to eight general services and their subcategories that were present at the event. In addition, there were three questions on the form that asked guests about other services that were not available that day but were still of interest to them, how they found out about PHC, and how they traveled to the event. Table 1 indicates the raw number of guests who indicated they wished to connect to a particular service in 2013, 2014, and 2015.

Since the event also strives to meet the needs of guests in the future, the RSAF also asked respondents to indicate what other services of interest to them, but were not available at the date of the event. Stress management and smoking cessation/quit smoking programs or services were the top two requests. Table 2 below displays the results for services not available but sought. The responses from one question on the RSAF and one question on the Exit Survey were combined to capture the total picture as to how guests found out about PC. The majority of respondents indicated that the top three ways by which guests found about PC were (1) Social Media/Facebook; (2) News; and (3) Referrals from other agencies or service providers. Table 3 presents the distribution of these and other promotion types for the event.

Table 1 presents the services the guests were wishing to connect with while at PC. Most services increased in popularity in 2015 as compared to 2013 and 2014. To illustrate, only 9 guests wished to connect with resources for school-aged children in 2014, but in 2015 that number increased to 30. In that same regard, more guests wished to connect with employment, various forms and documents, health coverage, and holiday help in 2015 compared to 2014. The number of guest wanting assistance with housing and affordable rental and utilities also increased in 2015. The services that were the most in higher demand in 2015 were tangible services such as clothing, food assistance, and haircuts. There were very few services that were more popular in 2013 and 2014, but were not as popular among guest requests in 2015. Compared to 2014 the number of guests wishing to connect with blood pressure services in 2015 declined from 30 to 19 respectively. Guests wishing to connect with budgeting services decreased from roughly 21 in 2013 and 20% in 2014 to 11 in 2015.

The results for Table 3 are important to the future of Project Connect, because the findings demonstrate effective and non-effective ways of advertising this event to the community. The two most noteworthy changes were observed in the areas of word of mouth and agency reference. In 2015, 20 more guests were referred by an agency than in 2014. In 2014, 55 guests were informed of this event by talking with family, friends, and members of the community, but in 2015 that number grew to 112 guests hearing about the event from others. This information will be crucial for the continuation of Project Connect.

The majority of the guests used their own personal vehicle to travel to the Project Connect events in 2013, 2014, and 2015. The next most common mode of transportation was a family or friend providing a ride followed by walking. There was a PC sponsored shuttle with scheduled pickups and drop offs from a number of locations around Bowling Green, Ohio to the event. However, few guests indicated they used the service. Table 4 includes the totals for the modes of transportation taken by guests.

Table 4. Modes of Guest Transportation to Event

Findings from the Intake Form

The second instrument was the Intake Form, which is a needs assessment and screening form that was designed to help the PC volunteers best understand guests' needs and assist them at the event. A similar version of this form was used in 2013 and 2014. The form was completed by the Intake Volunteers in an interview format with the guests. The trained Intake Volunteers identified each guest's priority services on the "Services At-A-Glance" form (see Appendix). This at-a-glance form was used by the Volunteer Host as he/she escorted the guest around the event after the intake process. We were able to collect and report findings on 290 guests from the Intake Form in 2015, which is an increase of 94 compared to the number of completed intake forms in 2014 and an increase of 145 compared to 2013. Table 5 presents descriptives of guests in 2013, 2014, and 2015.

In 2015, there were a higher number of guests aged 18-34 compared to the other age categories. The percentages of guests across the age ranges were more evenly distributed in 2014. The percentage of White/Non-Hispanic guests served increased by almost 13% from 2013 to 2015, while the percent of Other/Non-Hispanic guests served decreased from 2013 to 2015. More guests in 2015 reported holding Social Security cards and birth certificates compared to 2013 and 2014. There was a decrease in the percentage of guests possessing a state identification card/driver's license from 2013, however.

Table 6 presents the residency struggles some guests were having. The percentage of non-homeless guests increased in 2015 to 91% from 85.5% in 2014 and 68% in 2013. The percent of first time homeless guests decreased from 23.1% in 2013 to 9.3% in 2014 and 5.5% in 2015. The factors that affected the guests from keeping their houses in 2015 significantly increased in the areas of violence in home, financial obligations, physical disability, and mental illness. The two areas that decreased in 2015 from 2014, in regards to the primary reasons reported for becoming homeless or facing eviction were loss of job and abusive situation/domestic. In 2014, 35.1% of guests reported that loss of job was the primary reason for homelessness or eviction, while in 2015, 17.4% of guests reported the same. Table 6 also shows that 2015 guests reported staying in their residency longer than those attending in 2013 and 2014. More guests had reported staying in a rental property or property owned by guest in 2015 compared to 2013 and 2014. Regarding income and benefit assistance of guests, a general trend observed across the data collected from the three guest surveys is that lack of employment or being underemployed is a common characteristic of the guests who visited the PC event in 2015, which was a similar finding in 2013 and 2014. Thirty-five percent of guests' income source was from a job in 2015, up slightly from 26% in 2013 and 22% in 2014. The primary source of income (see Table 7) for 49% of guests in 2015 came from Social Security Disability Benefits. Table 7 displays the income and benefit assistance the guests received. Other benefits that were reported as being a source of financial assistance by guests in 2015 were government medical assistance and supplemental assistance program/electronic benefit card (SNAP/EBT). The percentage of guests receiving government medical assistance increased by over 19% from 2013 to 2015. Supplemental assistance program/electronic benefit card (SNAP/EBT) was also being utilized by 56.8% of guests in 2015 compared to 53.8% of guests in 2013 and 55.1% in 2014.

Findings from the Exit Interview

The final data collection instrument for guests was the Exit Interview. This document was a short questionnaire that could be completed either by the guest or in a brief interview format with the Host Volunteer asking the guest the questions. As indicated earlier, one of the questions asked guests to indicate how they heard about the PC event. Results from this question were combined with data collected on a similar question on the Request for Services and Appointment Form. The remaining questions on the Exit Interview asked guests to note their main reasons for attending PC and to provide feedback on the event. Of the 268 persons completing the exit forms, 30% of guests attended last year's Project Homeless Connect event in October 2014. The remaining were new in 2015. Table 8 presents the results of the Exit Interview.

Table 8. Reasons Reported by Guests for Attending Event

The percentages in Table 8 provide further evidence that more guests were attending Project Connect in 2015 for tangible goods compared to 2013 and 2014. In 2015, only 16% of guests attended PC for housing, compared to the 30.5% that attended in 2013 and 20% that attended in 2014. The purpose of receiving clothes/coat increased from 2013 to 2015 (14.5% to 46%, respectively). The need for a haircut rose from 3.1% in 2013 to 26.3% in 2014 and 31% in 2015.

The same percentage of guests (89%) who completed an Exit Interview indicated receiving the services for which they came. Over 90% of the guests in 2015 were very satisfied with what the services and programs provided at PC and the event overall. Figures 2 through 4 present guest satisfaction and helpfulness ratings of PC 2015.

There were three main aspects of PC 2015 that guests found most helpful. First, and similar to last year, the volunteer hosts and the people assisting at PC. The second most helpful aspect guests noted was that everything was helpful, which speaks volumes to the people, providers, and resources offered this day. Rounding out the top three, guests also reported that having hair cuts available were helpful, followed closely by the food and hot meal services.

Two questions on the Guests' Exit Survey inquired as to how the organizers of PC could serve them better and what guests would like to see at the next event. Similar to responses in 2014, some guests at the 2015 event noted everything was great the way it was at the event, but a fair number of guests did offer specifics as to how the PC event could be improved. These were:

- More dental appointments available on day of event*
- More help with clothing, particularly more coats and boots* and school uniforms
- More food assistance*

- Shorter wait times
- Specific help for veterans
- More education and schooling options
- Auto repair and gas cards
- Speech and hearing services

PROJECT CONNECT
Working Together to Prevent Homelessness

RESULTS: VOLUNTEERS

Similar to the 2013 Project Homeless Connect event, there were many types of volunteers at PC 2014 and 2015. Over 200 individuals volunteered as Host Volunteers, Greeters, Intake Volunteers, Guest Coordinators, Floaters, Dining Area Hosts, Food Bussers, Food Service Runners, Food Servers, Food Prep Assistants, Exit Coordinator, and Clean-up Crew. Over 80% of the volunteers served as Hosts. At the end of a volunteer's shift, he/she was asked to provide feedback in a self-report survey that was designed and used by PCs across the country with some minor modifications from the BGSU Research Team. On average, PC 2015 volunteers worked 3.81 hours to support the event. The following paragraphs present the combined quantitative and qualitative findings from the 175 completed surveys.

The majority of the volunteers was between the ages of 18 and 44 (62%), female (78%), and noted white (86%) as their race/ethnicity. There was a near even split among married and single volunteers, and most had some college experience or a college/higher level degree (75%). Forty-one percent of the volunteers were employed for wages of self-employed, followed by 40% students. A fair number of volunteers (15%) were retired.

As displayed in Figure 6, the majority of volunteers (87%) reported that they were adequately trained to perform their duties, which is down four percent over last year's 91% of volunteers indicating as such. The training video created was appreciated by some volunteers. Of the 13% who reported not being adequately trained, the major theme of their comments focused on the need to know what providers and services were present and where they could be found. Unlike last year when one hundred percent of the volunteers had at least some experience volunteering, only 78% had a lot or some volunteer experience prior to PC 2015. Ninety-four percent of the volunteers would volunteer for PC again. Figure 8 details other aspects reported as positive experiences for the volunteers on the date of the event.

One of the five goals for PC was to increase community awareness, provider membership, and program coordination for the Continuum of Care Wood County. Without a doubt, increasing community awareness was accomplished. Eighty-five percent of PC 2015 (was 91% last year) volunteers responded that they gained knowledge of where to turn to help should they or someone they know be in need of essential services or be at risk of experiencing homelessness. This was a decrease from 2013 where 88% and in 2014 where 91% reported similarly. Volunteers also noted several organizations and services that made a significant impact on them the day of the Project event:

- Dental care
- Clothing distribution
- Groceries and hot meal
- Birth certificates
- Salvation Army
- Wood County Health and Wellness Center
- Prevent Blindness
- Physical and mental health services
- United Way
- WSOS
- Fringe Thrift Store
- Wood County Area Ministries
- The Cocoon Shelter
- Several wrote down "All of them" to this question

"Project Connect went beyond what I expected, it is a wonderful program it is great that these people were able to get the help they need"

--Volunteer

Similar to what was asked of guests, volunteers responded to an open-ended question as to what could be improved for a future PC event. In addition to what was discussed above regarding training needing improvement, volunteers also reported that improvements could be made in the following areas:

- Training
 - More information about the services provided by the agencies
 - Handing out maps at training would be helpful
 - Better walk through and explanation of procedure
 - Have hands-on training in addition to the video
 - Suggestions of what to do on down time
- Providers
 - Organizing similar services/providers in same general area
 - Some providers did not show so that made it difficult to navigate with guests
- Efficiency and Event Processes
 - Have more than one coffee/drink station
 - Details need to be better worked out before the morning rush (e.g., maps, where hosts and seating are, self-guiding process)
 - Better way to pair hosts with guests
 - Explain the sticker process (i.e., guest labels for provider sheets)
 - Better explanation of how to fill out the intake sheets
 - Helpful to have the intake coordinators communicate with the hosts the guest needs and/or priority
- Signage/Paperwork
 - Name on the sign and locations did not match sometimes.
 - Create a bigger margin so organizations (on "Services-At-A-Glance" sheet) aren't cut off when clipped on clipboard
 - Have a map for each guest rather than one on each host's clipboard so can plot where to go per guest
- Equipment
 - Use a microphone in the sanctuary to call out guest numbers for intake
 - Larger bags for the coat area
 - Consider setting up a private space where guests who are emotionally overwhelmed can go recover

"[PC] is very eye-opening and shows you all the agencies that exist to help."

RESULTS: PROVIDERS

Providers were also asked to complete an evaluation survey on WCPC. Similar to the volunteer survey, the instrument used to collect provider feedback was developed and has been used at many WCPC events across the country. In its third year of this organized effort 57 providers completed the self-report survey. Of the providers who completed the survey 98% of them reported that it was a well organized event and 96% of them reported that they received appropriate level of support. Majority of the providers also noted that the WCPC 2015 was a good use of their agency's time. Furthermore, 92% of the respondents felt that the WCPC event met their expectations as they were given opportunities to help potential clients access their services. Some providers reported that the event was a "great positive experience," "very organized," and had "positive energy from all involved". Most providers thought that it was a good way to "learn about the community" and "helping people who need it." Many providers thought that WCPC provided them with a "wonderful opportunity to interact with other service providers and coordinate better communication between our organizations." Additionally, providers reported that they were able to educate guests about available resources and helping them be connected. Some providers recognized that it was an opportunity for them to get their name out in the community about the services they provided. Other providers reported positive nature of the event with excellent volunteers, great food, good transportation, and appreciative clients with whom they were able to meet. Almost without exception, providers felt that many needs were met at the WCPC event, particularly in terms of connecting individuals and families to much-needed resources. Agency personnel reported, "It was great to see how much this event helped people, it was truly a one-stop-shop that offered everything you could possibly imagine." Furthermore, 96% of the providers reported that they would attend WCPC event next year. Those who were unsure if they would participate in the future indicated that many of the quests were not eligible for their services. Agency workers also reported that a total of $11,865.54 worth of services was provided at WCPC event.

Some of the providers, who reported that WCPC event did not meet their expectations, stated that there should be better communication about the expectations of service providers is needed. For instance, one service provider suggested that WCPC should hold a "meeting for volunteers, vendors, etc. to explain the day and how things function before clients arrive." Few service providers indicated that their assigned station was not conducive to client interaction and suggested that the room should be more open.

Most providers (62%) reported that WCPC had changed their ideas about what homelessness is and who is involved. Some reported that the event provided a "better understanding of the complexity of homelessness". Across the board, providers were elated to be able to do something to give back to their community and to see so many other available resources. A content analysis of comments by providers was done to determine common themes that emerged about positive aspects of WCPC, which are presented in table 10.

By the Numbers:

- ~$12,000 In-kind gifts
- 197 Agency representatives across 55 providers
- 11 New providers
- 96% would attend PC again
- 96% felt welcome and appreciated for the goods/services provide

In addition to the positive aspects, providers also offered suggestions for areas where improvement is needed. There were six main headings that captured the content of providers' comments under improvements for Project Connect 2015. Below are the six areas with specific recommendations:

1. Efficiency/Processing

- Better sign-in process to ensure better assistance
- Put table numbers on maps and signs
- Orientation for providers
- Need more support to provide better services

2. Volunteer Hosts

- More information/training about behavioral issues and services needed
- Training should also include what to expect at the event and information about restrooms and availability of food

3. Marketing and Outreach

- More media coverage
- More PR in advance
- Social media marketing
- Update website for current year's program with "details of the day" information

4. Space

- Better flow of services
- Space felt crowd, more space needed

5. Scope of Services

- Some services were under-utilized and under-visited

6. Communication

- Better explanation to providers of services offered

- Give providers time to check out other providers for referral purposes
- All the services available not on the list
- Make sure people know about each provider
- More information about parking

BGSU RESEARCH TEAM FINAL RECOMMENDATIONS

Taking the input from the providers, guests, volunteers, and Steering Committee members together as a whole, there were four primary areas where improvement for Project Connect 2015 is recommended:

1. Continue to Enhance and Extend Volunteer Host and Intake Worker Training

Even given all of the revised processes and continuing the use of the “Services At-A-Glance” sheet, host volunteers noted numerous times the need for training. Mock walk-throughs, more on who the providers are and what they do, and having more detailed directions prior to event day should continue to be the focus for revising training efforts for PC 2016. One suggestion from last year was to create and make available a training guide where volunteers can learn about the providers and their services, the guest sticker process, and related prior to the event. One suggestion is to send volunteers a link to a guide of providers and their offerings from previous years. Hard copies can also be made available for pick up or mailing. While some providers may not return or be new to PC 2016, having a directory prior to the event might help ease some of the concerns expressed by hosts and intake volunteers about lacking information about what providers do.

A significant number of hosts also requested a better process for pairing them with guests. Guests liked being paired with their host when they entered the event, so lining up hosts and having a Steering Committee member pair the two in an orderly manner might prevent some, for lack of a more tactful way to state this, “cutting the line” by some hosts. Perhaps create a board with numbers on it such that when a number is called from the board, the host who has that number, gives a sheet with his/her name on it to cover his/her number after being matched with a guest. This process would also help determine the hosts who are taking guests around and denote those who are available to be paired with incoming guests.

As expressed last year, more directed training for intake volunteers on data collection forms are highly recommended. Data on the target population of those at-risk for homelessness were not fully captured again this year as only some intake volunteers completed those questions on the intake forms. Stressing the importance of how the information gathered is used and why has to be reinforced not only in training but also on the day of the event.

2. Add Orientation and More Interaction Time for Providers

New to PC 2015, providers requested the desire for an orientation to help with what to expect the day of the event, including information on parking, restrooms, and availability of food. They also noted that they would like to have a better explanation of the services other providers are offering at the event. Another suggestion was that they be given time to go around to visit other providers for referral purposes. The directory recommended for volunteers could also be made available to providers to facilitate this request and to better serve families and individuals in need in Wood County after they register for a spot at PC 2016.

3. Re-Examine and Revise Event Layout

Both providers, volunteers, and guests reported the need for more organization in the areas where providers will be located. For PC 2016, the Logistics Committee should make every attempt to put similar providers in the same area, such as medical providers in one area of St. Mark’s, behavioral health in another, and so forth. The signage and volunteer maps and Services At-A-Glance sheets could be color-matched so that volunteers can readily take their guests to say, the blue area for behavioral health providers, rather than traveling around the church to find a provider. This organization would also allow providers serving similar needs to have a relatively equal chance of being visited by guests. For the past few years, either there were providers whose services were underutilized because they could not be readily found or hosts took guests to whatever provider is the closest to where they currently were in the church. Physically grouping the providers by services delivered can also help shorten wait times and ease congestion throughout the facility.

4. Offer More Tangible Goods, Services, and Provisions

This recommendation was also made in 2014 and while there were considerably more offerings in 2014, guests and volunteers both noted the need to have more dental appointment slots, food, more coats, winter clothing, and car care services. As proposed last year, efforts should be made by the PC 2016 Steering Committee to contact local career centers and colleges such as Penta, Owens, and similar for assistance in some of these areas. Car repair has been a consistent request for the past three years. Given the limited on site space, one option would be to request vouchers from companies that service cars and/or schools with auto technician programs. Extending the provider reach beyond the immediate Bowling Green area to other qualified entities to provide additional tangible goods and services throughout more of Wood County would help extend future connections for more guests.

5. Utilize Electronic Data Collection Measures Wherever Possible

In order to compile the Services at-a Glance form and for logistical purposes, all providers should be required to register through the online system, regardless if they were present in previous years.

As the BGSU Team has done for the past two years, the remainder of this report presents descriptives specific to each provider from whom we were able to collect PC client number labels in 2015. Data on guest characteristics are presented for those guests who had unique identifier labels that matched their intake and welcome forms. This information can be utilized for not only future PC and similar event planning in general, but it can also provide insight to the providers as to the types of clients in Wood County who might be in need of their services.
