Library Organization, Administration and Management: Leading Library Managers

Muhammad Tufail Khan, Government College University, Lahore Pakistan

Available at: https://works.bepress.com/mtufail440/1/
This work is highly beneficial for Managerial Level Professional Librarians who are recruited in competitive and leading institutes. This book reflects the needs of Library Managers and Administrators. It also presents a deep insight of Librarians’ job descriptions and highlights significant aspects of librarianship. Library Schools may benefit a lot by this book keeping in view the changing needs of market. This book is highly recommended as textbook in many Library Schools in Pakistan. This book is also very much profitable for the students of LIS. It covers the areas of Library Administration, Library Management side by side Library Organization. Library Managers can utilize this book while making essential decisions in their respective organizations and for the purpose of enriching the image of libraries collectively.

Muhammad Tufail Khan