BIOGRAPHY

The Piazzolla da Camera Trio celebrates its ten years of dedication to the exclusive performance of the works of modern tango master Astor Piazzolla. Having travelled the world to bring attention to the beauty and bravado of what audiences and critics have celebrated as 'exquisitely Argentine' and 'simply delicious in execution', this brotherhood of musicians strive to look beyond the written note, and bring to light the rich colours and sounds of the Buenos Aires cityscape.

A native of Madison, Wisconsin, George Blum began playing the violin at age 6. Upon earning a performance degree from the University of Arizona, he also learned the fine art of string instrument making and repair. He has been a member of the Tucson Symphony Orchestra since 1986 and perform at many festivals throughout the United States.

Argentine-American Andrew Nickles was awarded a Rotary scholarship at eighteen where he studied cello in Belgium. He earned two bachelor's degrees from the University of Arizona in French and in Music, a master's degree from the University of Illinois, and continues to arrange, compose for, and direct hundreds of guitar and orchestra students in Tucson, Arizona.

A native of Argentina, Oscar Macchioni is a Steinway Artist, an accomplished pianist, professor, lecturer, author and adjudicator. Oscar has performed extensively in many countries, such as Argentina, England, and Italy. His book 'The Tango in American Piano Music' and his CD 'Mostly Tangos' got rave reviews. Dr. Macchioni is currently an Associate Professor of piano at the University of Texas at El Paso.
