Oscar Macchioni was born in Tucumán, Argentina. Upon his graduation from the Universidad Nacional de Tucumán, he received a scholarship from the Polish Government to study piano in the city of Krakow. He won several competitions in Argentina and the USA, such as Green Valley Piano competition in Arizona, Promociones Musicales de Buenos Aires, and Tucumán National University. He has performed extensively in his native Argentina, in Poland, and in the USA, which has included such notable venues as Weill Recital Hall at Carnegie Hall, Columbia University, Steinway Hall, and the Donnell Library in New York. He also enjoys research activities and recently presented research papers and lecture recitals at conferences for the College Music Society, Society for Ethnomusicology and the International Council for Traditional Music.

Oscar Macchioni has been recognized by many prestigious national and international organizations. He has been sponsored by the Smithsonian Institution in Washington D.C. (Fellow Graduate Student, Summer 2000), the Polish Government, the Organization of American States (OAS), the Leschetizky Association of New York, the Bariloche Music Camp, and most recently received the Music Teachers National Association "Student Achievement Award" and was named "Distinguished Graduate Student" by the University of Arizona Music Advisory Board.

In 2003, Oscar Macchioni joined the faculty of the University of Texas at El Paso where he is an Assistant Professor of Piano and Piano Pedagogy. He received his Doctor of Musical Arts degree in piano performance with a minor in ethnomusicology from the University of Arizona. His teachers include Prof. Tannis Gibson, Dr. Nohema Fernández, Dr. Ana Maria Treneci de Botazzi, Ewa Bukojemska, and Lic. Celina List among others.
