The Irish Law Journal strives to publish novel scholarship that will have an immediate and lasting impact on the legal community in Ireland and abroad. We invite articles from academics, professionals and students of law or related disciplines. Case comments and book reviews will also be accepted. While each issue might have articles focused in Irish law, the journal’s remit is international and we welcome submissions on all areas of the law irrespective of national boundaries.

For subscriptions, please contact the Maynooth University Law Department.
