USQ Office for the Advancement of Learning & Teaching OALT Flyer 2019

Prof Shelley Kinash, University of Southern Queensland

Available at: https://works.bepress.com/shelley_kinash/277/
For USQ Staff (Academics & Professionals)

What the Office for the Advancement of Learning & Teaching (OALT) can do to support YOU

The following are illustrative examples. Bespoke supports are also available.

Academic Development

- Hands-on practical support, webinars & workshops to further develop your teaching approaches.
- Evidence-based teaching & learning skill development. e.g. how to improve feedback to students and how to engage online learners.
- Support to write winning learning & teaching awards & grants.

Program & Course Enhancement

- Support to prepare for, and be successful in, program quality review and accreditation.
- Curriculum review and enhancement, and working alongside you to co-develop new courses & programs.
- Redesigning online learning environments and interactive learning experiences.

Digital Learning Innovation

- Creating exciting new approaches to teaching and learning such as gamification and immersive and interactive learning experiences.
- Access to creative professionals (e.g. Graphic Learning Designers & Animators) to produce teaching infographics, banners and badges.
- Producing videos and podcasts for learning, and embedding them in your curriculum and assessment.

Other Examples

- Helping you produce and publish your Scholarship of Teaching and Learning (SOTL).
- Focussing on your Career (and advancement) as a University Learning and Teaching Expert. e.g. Support with Academic Promotion and Professional Advancement.
- Evaluating, closing-the-loop and continuous improvement of learning and teaching.

Office for the Advancement of Learning and Teaching

@ oalt@usq.edu.au
07 4631 1600
usq.edu.au/learning-teaching