NJ TODAY WITH JOHN MCKEON

"NJ Today with John McKeon" is a public affairs television show I produced and directed that was shot once a month from November 2010 to May 2011 for a total of twelve, thirty minute episodes. Each show has three segments: New Jersey State politics, Meet the Mayor and Who's Who in NJ.

Guests ranged from former Governor Richard Codey and State Assembly President Sheila Oliver, to the cast of "Jerseylicious" and "The Real Housewives from New Jersey." The show was taped in our Fahy Hall television studio with a mixed crew of alumni and current students. The show airs statewide on various public access channels.
