Raid on Kerala House absured

Theドラップcampaign by Hindutva activists against beef cutting is crossing all reasonable limits under the banner of a false fear of cow slaughter. The latest episode is the police raid on a Kerala government-held hotel, which is a state-owned hotel, and the arrest of its management staff. The police have made a mockery of the rule of law in the country. The police action is an insult to the people of Kerala and an affront to their democratic rights. The police action is an attempt to intimidate the people of Kerala and to silence their democratic voices. The police action is an attempt to undermine the democratic process and to undermine the people's right to freedom of speech and expression. The police action is an attempt to undermine the people's right to peaceful assembly and protest. The police action is an attempt to undermine the people's right to freedom of association. The police action is an attempt to undermine the people's right to freedom of movement. The police action is an attempt to undermine the people's right to freedom from unlawful detention. The police action is an attempt to undermine the people's right to a fair trial. The police action is an attempt to undermine the people's right to equality before the law.
