How many of us know about the truth

Y. R. GUPTA

The government that claims to be committed to socialism is not only unable to get the Jat demands removed but also went on to demand new demands which were not even made by the Jats. There is no question of the Jat demands being considered by the Central government; the Jat leaders had made it clear that their demands were not to be considered by the government. The government is only interested in getting its demands met, and it is not interested in the demands of the Jats. It is only interested in its own demands, and it is not interested in the demands of the Jats.

The government is only interested in getting its demands met, and it is not interested in the demands of the Jats. It is only interested in its own demands, and it is not interested in the demands of the Jats.
