Abstract

This template has been prepared for authors of contributions to be presented at the Renewable Energy Sources - Research and Business (RESRB) 2018 conference to be held in Brussels, June 18-20, 2018. Authors are requested to follow these guidelines to achieve uniformity of Proceedings. Your abstract will be published on the digital Proceedings and in the future it might be followed by a reference to your full paper published in a journal/book.

In your abstract please briefly summarise your research, between 0.3 and 1 page. Give a summary of the most relevant contributions of your research. Indicate your objective, method, main results, and conclusion. Make sure your abstract fits the themes of the RESRB 2018 conference. Emphasise in what way your research is novel and makes a difference to science, technology, business or policy. If possible explain how your research can be used in the business practice.

Keywords

please; provide; up to five; keywords; which reflect the content of your contribution; use semicolons as keyword separators

Acknowledgments

Please provide a suitable text for your abstract only if absolutely necessary.

Authors' consent to publish

By submitting this abstract to RESRB conference the authors declare it is original material not published elsewhere and agree that it can be included for publication on digital conference Proceedings. Without this statement your abstract cannot be accepted for Proceedings.
