Annual Report, 2012-2013

LIC at a Glance

Library and Information Center (LIC), established in 1998, acts as an information center gathering textbooks, reference books, instructional materials of all kinds and teaching aids in various fields of education, mostly in English language education, and educational leadership and management.

It also provides information about other SEAMEO Centers and Southeast Asian education systems. The library attracts students, teachers, researchers, educational administrators and other users from different regions of the country.

LIC Mission and Vision

To support in training, research, development and other professional activities of SEAMEO RETRAC;

To provide information, facilities and services to various individuals and institutions interested in Educational Leadership & Management, teaching and research; and,

To serve as a valuable source of knowledge on English language education, teaching and research.

LIC Philosophy

“Making the maximum amount of information or literature available to the maximum number of users without a proportionate increase in expenditure”
